Exclusion of Orientals May Be Made Complete

CONGRESS TO HAVE BILL AT COMING SESSION

Senator Shortridge Asserts Legislation Will Be Under Discussion

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Complete exclusion of Orientals from the United States through a provision in the new immigration law denying admittance to this country of aliens not eligible to citizenship, will be urged in the next senate.

Senator Samuel Shortridge, Republican, of California, made that announcement here today.

Shortridge said he would call a conference of California congressmen in a few days to work out a plan of campaign to push the exclusion legislation in the senate and house.

Recent Decisions

The two decisions handed down by the United States supreme court on November 12, holding the anti-alien laws of California and Washington to be constitutional and valid, will be discussed at the proposed conference and will, it is stated, form the basis of any course of action that may be adopted by the California congressional delegation.

The laws involved in the court's rulings hold that aliens not eligible to citizenship in the United States cannot acquire or possess real property.

The Glendale Evening News publishes the city's legal advertising exclusively, also the minutes of the city council, for it is the city's official newspaper.

COL. FORBES REPLIES TO CHARGES

Graft and Corruption in Hospital Contracts Not True, He Says

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Colonel Charles R. Forbes, formerly director of the United States veterans' bureau, today branded as lies all charges of graft and corruption in the award of hospital contracts during his administration.

Testifying before the senate investigating committee, Forbes twice shouted "lie" to accusations made by Elias H. Mortimer, of Philadelphia, his chief accuser. On one occasion, Forbes was so overcome with anger, the committee was forced to quiet him. Mortimer sat directly opposite Forbes and the two men glared at each other.

Accuses Sawyer

Brigadier-General Charles E. Sawyer, personal physician of the late President Harding, sought to obtain $459,000 worth of government supplies, including whiskey, for a soldiers' home at Dayton, Ohio, Colonel Forbes testified today.

Forbes said he had blocked the removal of the supplies from the supply depot at Perryville, Md., thus widening the breach between himself and Sawyer.

MRS. STOKES WINNER OF CONTEST

Husband Will Not Oppose Separation; Other Issues Remain in Court

By JACK CARBERRY
For International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Helen Elwood Stokes today won her suit for separation from William Earl Dodge Stokes, 73 year old millionaire, who failed in his own efforts to divorce her.

Counsel for Stokes ran up the white flag at the very outset of the suit in supreme court this morning, declaring that "Stokes would not live with this woman even though she won all her suits."

"Nor would Mrs. Stokes live with him any more than she would with a kangaroo," was the retaliation of Samuel Untermyer, counsel for Mrs. Stokes.

"Then it's fifty-fifty," replied Isadore Gainsburg, Stokes' lawyer.

Contest Continues

The attorneys then stipulated that the separation would NOT be contested.

Formal testimony will be entered and the separation go by virtual default.

All other issues, the petition of Mrs. Stokes for custody of the two children, for $35,000 permanent alimony a year, and for $2,333,000 as her dower rights in Stokes' $7,000,000 estate, however, will be fought bitterly by the millionaire husband.

SEEK BURCHETT STREET OPENING

Plan to Purchase Property of O. M. Newby to Aid Direct Route

At a meeting of the Brand Boulevard Improvement association, held last night in the office of J. F. Stanford at 108 West Broadway, President Mattison B. Jones presiding, a resolution was adopted requesting the members as individuals to contract with O. M. Newby for the purchase of his holdings at the corner of Pacific avenue and Burchett street, so that this street might be dedicated through from its present western terminus to San Fernando road at Grand View avenue, in accordance with the city's plan; and ten of the twenty-five members present at the meeting signed such a contract, on condition that ten additional signers be obtained.

Such a plan, according to T. W. Watson of the association, will make possible this long considered project without assessment on Burchett street frontage, and when consummated will open up a direct route into the city from Burbank and valley points via Brand boulevard, owing to the fact that San Fernando road makes a sharp turn to the right at that point.

Great Importance

Such a project, connecting San Fernando road at Grand View avenue with Brand boulevard at Burchett street, is felt by members of the association to be of prime importance to the development of those portions of Glendale involved.

As most of the necessary roadway has already been dedicated, according to Mr. Watson, and the balance will come with the opening of intervening acreage as subdivisions develop, the last obstacle in the path of the improvement will be overcome when ten additional signers put their names on the contract along with those who last night signed up to buy the property which is considered the key to the situation.

RAIL LEADERS MEET

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Executives of the sixteen standard railway labor organizations met here today at the headquarters of the International Association of Machinists to work out a definite legislative program in connection with questions which will come before the forthcoming session of congress.

Priest Gives Last Rites to Boy in Street Car Crash

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—While traffic was held up for blocks and drivers not knowing the cause of the delay frantically tooted their horns, Rev. A. R. Dratham knelt beside a street car, beneath which was the body of a dying boy, and administered the final rites.

The lad, John S. Edwards, 13, late yesterday dashed in front of the car on his bicycle and was instantly crushed beneath it. The priest, passing in the crowd, realized the situation, and elbowed his way to the side of the car and prayed for the soul of the dying boy, whose identity and religion were then unknown.

COOLIDGE IS SILENT ON DISPUTE

President Takes No Part as Yet in Open Warfare on Soldier Bonus

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Coolidge, for the time being, has adopted a policy of watchful neutrality in the open warfare that again has broken out between Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and the American Legion over the soldier bonus.

The president has not placed his O. K. on the Mellon program for a wholesale slashing of income taxes and a rejection of the bonus. Neither has he indicated that he would approve the bonus bill, which is regarded as certain of passage early in the new congress.

It is probable the president's attitude will not be known until the delivery of his first message to congress, on December 4 or 5.

Leaders Careful

Politics has become so entwined with the bonus question that all the party leaders are stepping carefully and gingerly around the issue raised by Mellon, which, boiled down, places the issue in the light of "reduced taxes or a bonus."

With the entire house and a third of the senate coming up for re-election next year, all candidates realize the potency of a tax reduction argument on voters already groaning under a continuation of war-time taxes.

At the same time, a majority of both houses are committed orally and in writing, to passage of the bonus bill.

KIDNAPED, ROBBED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—Kidnaped and dragged into an automobile at Forty-eighth street and Western avenue by three bandits early today, robbed of 50 cents and then denied car fare home, was the experience of John Ouinet, according to the victim's report to the sheriff's office.

BANDITS KILL TWO, STEAL $43,000

Shoot Bank Messengers in Brooklyn, Escape With Payroll Money

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Two bank messengers were shot to death and a payroll of $43,600 stolen by two bandits in Brooklyn today.

The bandits fled in an automobile waiting at the entrance of a subway station, where the murders were done.

The victims, William S. Barlow and William H. McLaughlin, of the West End bank, had resisted the holdup men.

The crime was one of the most daring and cold-blooded in many months. The bandits trailed the messengers from the time they left the bank.

Demand Money

The bank employes were just going down the stairs of the station when the two bandits, with drawn guns, met them, demanded the payroll money contained in a black bag. When the messengers attempted to resist them the thieves opened fire.

The assassins snatched the bag and dashed down ths steps of the station into the waiting automobile, which was immediately whisked off by a third man sitting at the wheel.

Both messengers were armed but did not have an opportunity to use their weapons.

Exchange Club Hears Insurance Official

Walter M. Thornton, of Los Angeles, district superintendent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, was the principal speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Exchange club at Jensen's Egyptian Village today, speaking on the necessity that exists for every man to protect himself and his dependents by insuring himself in a reliable company.

Plans for the dinner and celebration that are to be held on Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, November 28, were discussed by the club members, as was also the club's participation in the drive for the Glendale Welfare Chest that opens Monday, November 19.

JAPAN TO STARTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—"I look to see Japan startle the world with its financial, industrial and commercial recovery. Realtors Frolic At Party in Honor of New Board Members

By RALPH A. LYND
Of The Evening News Staff.

The officers and members of the Glendale Realty Board lived up to their reputation as capable entertainers last night when they staged a party at the Odd Fellows' hall on West Broadway to welcome the new members who were admitted to the organization during the recent membership drive, during which over fifty names were added to the rolls of the board, bringing the membership up to 118 and placing Glendale in the 100 per cent column in both the state and national real estate organizations and giving it three directors in the California Real Estate association.

Peter Hanson, the new president, opened the proceedings, and turned the meeting over to the retiring (in a manner of speaking) president, Cameron D. Thom, who, after a few remarks on his own account, introduced the stars on the Realtors' Million-Dollar Entertainment, who had been, according to the program, secured at enormous expense.

Mayor Spencer Robinson, the first "turn," recalled the days when he barnstormed around the country on his singing tours, and wound up with reciting a poem of James Whitcomb Riley's, "Good Things to Eat."

Truitt's Waistcoat

Billed as Isadore Lowry, B. D., I. S. A., D. D., W. L. Truitt, in a vest that put to shame the liveliest iris that is supposed to fall on the burnished dove, delivered a lecture of which the salient points were devoted to the doings of some realtor who traded some girl out of everything but her dimple in a real estate deal.

The Freres Hayward, E. Payson and Julian S., stellar artists from the Paris and Ivanhoe Hills conservatories of music, rendered several songs in a harmonious manner, after Cam Thom had

HANSON OUTLINES PLANS FOR YEAR

Realtors' President Delivers Program for Ensuing Year at Luncheon

Peter Hanson, president of the Glendale Realty Board, presented his recommendations for the coming year's work at the weekly luncheon held today in Jensen's Egyptian Village. His address follows:

"Looking back upon a year of splendid achievement—a doubled membership, enlarged publicity program, adequate financial policy, 100 per cent state and national board, full-time secretary, and harmonious membership—we account due credit to the retiring officers and efficient committee service.

"As we set out upon the voyage of another year, it is fitting we should take soundings to determine our course. To those of us to whom has been entrusted the helm, we pledge our best guidance. Keeping close watch at the wheel, we shall avoid the shoals and rocks, and, with harmony

Twining and Wilson Indorsed for C. of C.

The Glendale Realty Board, meeting today in Jensen's Egyptian Village, endorsed W. L. Twining and L. H. Wilson as directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce in the election that is to be held November 27.

The board also recommended that the Glendale city council appropriate $200 for the support of the Glendale baseball club, and it was brought out during a speech by City Manager W. H. Reeves that the council has already set aside $150 for the club.

George D. McDill read a report from the National Association of Real Estate Boards recommending that, as agreed upon at a recent conference, all universities add to their curricula a two-year course in real estate that would cover the subject in a way to constitute a college major in this subject.

Burton McGinnis, secretary of the Glendale Welfare Chest, explained the objects of the organization and asked that the board lend its aid in the coming campaign that opens next Monday.

ASSAULT ON BALDWIN'S POLICIES

Re-United Parties Appeal to Women for Support in Coming Election

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The fate of Premier Stanley Baldwin and his protective tariff policy seemed today to rest with the women voters. Both the re-united Liberal party and the Laborites are attacking the premier's protection policy on the ground it will increase the cost of living.

Liberal and Labor leaders are taking every step to arouse the women of the nation and to bring them to support the opposition. The election will be on December 6.

Bonus on Wheat

The Tories are planning to offer the farmers a bonus on wheat in an effort to gain their support. They are also raising the cry that unless protection be adopted there would be further unemployment and a levy on capital, demanded by the Laborites, would be bound to come.

The Liberals' program shows the deft hand of former Premier Lloyd George. It will provide a special appeal for women and also outline a program to alleviate unemployment in an attempt to gain the support of the workers.

Driver Escapes Death as Train Hits Truck

George Manos, truck driver, narrowly escaped death today when he jumped from his truck a few seconds before it was struck by a fast freight train at San Fernando and Verdugo roads. The truck, loaded with vegetables, had stalled on the railroad tracks, according to Manos, who said he didn't see the train until it was almost upon him.

SEIZURE OF GERMANY'S GREATEST SEAPORT LOOMS

Italy and Great Britain in Opposition; Cabinet Discusses Project

ROME, Nov. 14—France has notified the other allied powers of its intention to occupy Hamburg, Germany's greatest seaport, according to an unconfirmed report circulated in diplomatic circles today.

Italy is opposed to the plan, it is stated.

Advices from Paris said the advisability of seizing Hamburg as a punitive matter has been discussed by the French cabinet.

France considered punitive measures in the Ruhr in retaliation for Germany's allowing the former crown prince to return and rejecting the French demand for re-establishment of allied military control, but later turned to the idea of occupying Hamburg, the advices said.

Italian official circles believe that Great Britain is opposed to the seizure of Hamburg.

It was hinted in semi-official circles that the allied council of ambassadors at Paris would refuse to sanction the occupation of Hamburg.

Caminetti Sinking Rapidly, Say Reports

JACKSON, Nov. 14.—The condition of Anthony Caminetti, former commissioner of immigration, was so low today that a plan for blood transfusion was abandoned after a consultation of physicians. Ill from pernicious anemia for months, the former federal official has been sinking gradually since Sunday. His friends feared today that he would not survive until night.

Community Band Concert Pleases Glendale's Music Lovers at H. S. Auditorium

Several hundred Glendalians enjoyed the splendid concert given by the Community Band last night in the Glendale Union High school auditorium, sponsored by the local Exchange club.

The program was opened by D Ripley Jackson, president of the club, who acted as chairman. He was introduced by R. Ernest Tucker, Community Service executive.

The band then played the march "War Eagle" by Berry, after which Mrs. George W. Pierce entertained with a group of clever readings. "Rays of Gold" by Wheeler, a fine overture, was the band's next offering. This was followed by Harry Fraser and son in a group of Scotch dances in costume, the father playing the bagpipes and the son dancing.

Mrs. Wenzel Sings

"The Song of Songs" by Maya was rendered delightfully by Mrs. Mina Wenzel, who also gave "My Love Will Outlive It All," by Blaufuss. Other numbers by the band were "In Olden Days," by Johnson, a gavotte; "Carnation," by Johnson, an intermezzo, and "Heroes of War," by Johnson, a march. Captain Jackson relinquished his position as chairman of the evening to render a fine solo, after which he turned over the meeting to Robert E. Johnston, chairman of the Community Band committee of the Exchange club, owing to the necessity of being present on a program elsewhere.

Mr. Johnston spoke briefly on

WALTON WINS BIG VICTORY AGAINST KLAN

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 14.—The Oklahoma senate this afternoon refused to grant the prosecution in the impeachment trial of Governor J. C. Walton the right to dodge martial law counts of the indictment. This was a big victory for Walton and apparently gives him the right to bring in evidence on alleged Ku Klux Klan floggings in Walton's justification of martial law and in the effort to show that a conspiracy had been formed to remove him from office.

Five Acres Near Glendale Avenue For Sale, Price Only $3500, Back in 1887

By H. THOMPSON RICH
Of the Evening News Staff

A picturesque chapter in Glendale's past history is brought to light by Mrs. Mary A. Ayers of 223 East Palmer avenue, resident here for thirty-nine years, who brings to the office of the Evening News a copy of Glendale Encinal, Volume 1, Number 1, dated Tuesday, July 12, 1887, a paper of four seven-column pages.

The publishers of this long-forgotten weekly newspaper were W. L. and A. J. Wheeler, who thus hailed it in their salutatory: "An independent journal, 'with charity for all and malice for none'," stating "It will be our aim to work earnestly for the interests of Glendale and the surrounding valleys, and to harmonize with any enterprise tending to benefit the citizens thereof."

At that time Glendale had a population of only a few hundred, according to Mrs. Ayers, while the combined valleys could scarcely muster 1000. It was indeed with courage that the publishers of Glendale Encinal set out on their voyage "o'er perilous seas of printer's ink," on a bark of yellowish news print.

Glendale's Future

Say the publishers with regard to the future of Glendale, in that first issue:

"With its close proximity to the thriving city of Los Angeles then probably under 100,000, and the excellent advantages afforded here, than which no other town in Southern California can boast better, the future prosperity of Glendale is assured."

Men of clear vision were W. L. and A. J. Wheeler, though perhaps ahead of their time, like many seers. With the passage of thirty-six years, and the growing of Glendale from a village of a few hundred to a city of 45,000 and still in its infancy, such words as those uttered by the publishers in their first issue take on an added element of prophesy.

The paper states that "Last Friday L. Martin, of Eagle Rock, transferred ten acres at $500 per acre" and goes on to say: "Two prosperous little valleys situated northeast of Glendale, at the end of a winding, picturesque road through the Verdugo mountains, are La Canada and La Crescenta, both spotted by thirfty farms and peopled with an excellent class of farmers."

Bargains in Realty

The display advertisements in this initial ssue of Glendale Encinal call attention to such buys as:

5 acres near Glendale avenue, all in grapes, price, $3500.

10 acres choice land, small house, fruits, price $1,000.

20 acres improved land, good water, price $2,000.

Another item of interest is: "Glendale is much in need of a banking institution. Business men find it very inconvenient to go to Los Angeles to attend to bankng matters." And now Glendale has eight banks.

Two or three additional items, quoted below, have a particular interest:

"Judge E. M. Ross and C. E. Thom contemplate putting up a building to be used as a feed and livery stable."

"Several new blocks will soon be erected along Glendale avenue, the upper stories of which will be used as offices and the main floors as general business houses."

"A late easterner who has just taken up his abode here brought his ice skates with him, but has concluded they are as much out of place as real estate agents in heaven."

Illustrated Ad

An advertisement of a local hatter of that time shows a cut of a gentleman in wing collar, sideboards and plug hat of the approved model then prevalent. A limerick appearing coyly on page one states:

"There was a young man in Verdugo,
Whose mother said to him 'Do you go
And get you a wife,
That the rest of your life
May be spent in peace in Verdugo.'"

Those who have followed with interest the recent developments along Glendale avenue, culminating in a $500,000 electrification project now under way by the Glendale & Montrose and Union Pacific railways, will be particularly entertained by the following item:

"The arrival of the first train over the Los Angeles & Glendale railroad was hailed with delight. Mrs. Edward Ayers, in order to show her appreciation and welcome her husband home on his first trip over the line, illuminated her residence on Glendale avenue. Wax candles were placed in tiers in all the windows, Japanese lanterns were hung throughout the yard and the front of the house was artistically decorated with evergreen, making a fine display. Engineer Henshaw saluted by blowing his whistle as the train passed by the residence."

Mrs. Ayers also brings to the Evening News office, for inspection, a copy of The Glendale News, Volume 1, Number 35, dated Friday, December 29, 1905, a small paper of six four-column pages, published by E. M. McClure. In this issue, the most important topic was preparation for incorporation of Glendale as a city. The paper says:

"Some acrimonious remarks were indulged in by parties on both sides, as is usually the case when a question of this kind comes up for settlement."

Still another old newspaper brought by Mrs. Ayers is a copy of The Valley Independent, Volume 1, Number 27, dated Friday, August 16, 1907, a paper of four six-column pages, also published by E. M. McClure, "devoted to the best interests of the San Fernando valley."

In three papers of a generation and more ago, the development of Glendale is traced in clear lines, a widening process that gradually recognizes the interests of valley points outside its own limits, until the present far-flung lines of community spirit and co-operation are reached.

No words can pay adequate tribute to such newspaper pioneers as W. L. and A. J. Wheeler and E. M. McClure. No less than those who with their own hands went out and builded a city on the sagecovered, thorny mesa, these men who wrought in paper and type and printer's ink were pioneers. Mrs. Ayers is to be congratulated on having preserved these vivid mementoes of years that were the lean prelude to the prosperity we now enjoy.

Realtors Entertain New Board Members

quieted the crowd that objected to his Verdugo Canyon method of pronouncing the French word meaning "brothers."

Hiding behind the front name of Gustaf and a mop of straw-colored hair, Peter Hanson handed out a soul-stirring address on "Spasms," in a Swede dialect, leaving his audience wondering just what he had been trying to 'get at," and only stopped when Cam Thom began whetting a knife on his boot.

Three Face Charges

The irrepressible "Bill" Twining, of course, had to inject himself into the proceedings as the bearer of bad tidings, when he told Cam Thom, E. P. Hayward and Roy D. King that the chief of police was after them with a warrant for absconding with a lot from the corner of East Broadway and Glendale avenue, out the defense put up by the accused parties showed that they had left the hole there.

This led up to another ceremony in which each of the three was presented with a gift from the board as a token of appreciation for the work they had done during their terms of office. Mr. Thom drew a handsome belt with a silver buckle, Mr. Hayward and Mr. King each was presented with a beautiful pencil, and each of the three expressed his thanks for the gift in a manner that showed he was touched at the friendship shown by the members of the board.

Charles B. Guthrie, first president, and one of the main organizers of the Glendale Realty board, spoke briefly, as did also City Manager W. H. Reeves, praising the work of the board and predicting immense strides to be made in the future.

Initiate New Members

Mr. Thom administered the obligation to the new members, in which they pledged themselves to maintain the professional standards of themselves and of their firms on the highest plane, and the realtors' creed brought that part of the program to a close.

The last official act of Mr. Thom was to declare the representatives of the local newspapers, who have "covered" the meetings of the board during the year, honorary members of the organization.

Following the close of the program the floor was cleared for dancing, and those who did not care to shake a foot or to look on while others did so, could adjourn to another room and amuse themselves with cards.

Refreshments, consisting of double portions of ice cream and wafers, were dealt "off'n the arm" by Bill Twining and his aides, with L. H. Myers getting his arm frozen to the shoulder digging it out of the freezers.

Everybody adjourned at a comparatively early hour, in keeping with the ascetic style of living practiced by members of the Glendale Realty board.

BENEFIT TO HELP FURNISH SCHOOL

Seats for Auditorium to Be Purchased With Proceeds of Entertainment

Tentative plans are being made for a benefit entertainment to provide seats in the new school auditorium which is nearing completion.

School funds of the district are not sufficient to provide the seats and the trustees must find some other means of securing them. They are looking to the different organizations and clubs to cooperate to this end.

B. B. Reynolds, auditor of the Parent-Teacher association of Tujunga and who is known as a character impersonator and entertainer, has originated a plan that has not yet been completed, but would be an attractive entertainment.

Annual Banquet

The annual banquet for husbands of members, to be given Friday evening at the schoolhouse, will occupy the attention of the Tujunga Woman's club this week. The first study meeting will be held on November 22, in charge of the program committee with Mrs. Wheeler as leader.

Food sales by the club are proving successful, the last one held having netted $23.25 toward the building fund, on which the efforts of the members will be concentrated this year.

Mrs. Perry Harrison of Tujunga recently entertained at a luncheon in honor of the birthday anniversaries of her mother and sister, Mrs. Stagner and Mrs. Wheat.

Autumn Color Scheme

Autumn tints were used for the color scheme in decorating with a chrysanthemum centerpiece and bouquets of the same flower artistically placed.

Place cards were hand painted maple leaves. On the reverse of these were subjects for speeches to be responded to by the guests.

Guests were: Mrs. H. K. Wheat and Miss Adelaide G. Frost, from Long Beach; Mesdames Westerfield, Meyers, Smith, John Earl, Helen Earl and Rice, from Lankershim, and Mrs. George Adams, Tujunga.

SANTA MONICAN GUEST OF HONOR

Seymour Thomas Home Scene of Brilliant Affair as Visitor Goes East

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Thomas of "Cuddle Doon" entertained at a reception and tea in honor of Mrs. John Percival Jones of Santa Monica. About eighty of Mrs. Jones' close personal friends were present, many being native Californians. Among them was ex-Senator Cornelius Cole, who has passed the century mark. Mrs. John Percival Jones is leaving for an extended trip east.

Assisting the hostess were Mesdames Cosmo Morgan, Stephen Raymond, Grenville Bramin, Roy Jones, Halliday, Miss Anne Pelton, Miss Eleanor Cole. The rooms were decorated with masses of dahlias from the dahlia farm in the Verdugo Woodlands.

Mrs. D. Keifer entertained with a birthday party in honor of her daughter, Dorothy, at their Sycamore avenue home, on Monday evening. The house was decorated throughout with blue and gold streamers and other hangings of these colors. The flowers also carried out the color scheme. Games and dancing were enjoyed.

The piece de resistance of the evening was a huge birthday cake with an inscription on the top. Present were the Misses Janet Culbertson, Marion Keith, Bessie Maxwell, Virginia and Dorothy Keifer; the Messrs. Arthur Crowell, Tex and Bob Hendrix, Carrol and Francis Fay, Elmer and John Vilmer, and several guests from Hollywood.

Observe Armistice Day

Armistice Day was celebrated at the La Crescenta school by the pupils, who did not have a holiday, but enjoyed the pleasure of being entertained by Eugene Wix of Glendale, who spoke to the children on the American Legion; also Armistice Day and what it stands for. A short program, including readings by Mildred Jackson, Helen Fisher and Catherine Rhinehart, and the reading of the story, "Who Patriots Are" (Charles Stowe), by Elizabeth Talbot-Martin, followed Mr. Wix's most interesting speech, after which the following songs were sung by the entire school: "Over There," "Long, Long Trail," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," "The Star Spangled Banner," completing the afternoon's program, and the children were dismissed after giving the flag salute.

The Women's club expect a large attendance at their masquerade, to be given in the school house November 17, Saturday night of this week. On account of this masquerade, the La Crescenta branch of the Los Angeles county free library will be opened on Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock, instead of the regular Saturday night for this week only.

G. Behn, well-known druggist of the La Crescenta pharmacy, was the victim of an auto accident the other day. When he was driving home on the La Canada highway a gravel truck caught the end of his car, upsetting it. Mr. Behn's car is a complete loss, and Mr. Behn feels lucky to have escaped with a very badly shaken-up nervous system and numerous bruises.

Charter Day Celebration At Club Honors Members Who Founded Organization

By KATHERINE V. SINKS
Of The Evening News Staff

An important event in the history of the Tuesday Afternoon club, the ceremony of laying the cornerstone of the new clubhouse at the corner of North Central avenue and Lexington drive on "Charter Day," Tuesday, November 14, 1922, was recalled yesterday when the club women met for the first "Charter Day" celebration in the new building. Honoring the charter members is an annual event of interest to the club members, for it recalls a quarter of a century ago when the club came into being at an informal social gathering with Mrs. Philip Parker.

Following the club meeting a surprise "Charter Day" program was given. It had been arranged by Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward, program chairman of the club, and Mrs. Max L. Green, curator of the drama section, and they are deserving of much praise for the clever sketch they arranged to introduce a group of the charter members and to presesnt interesting facts in club history.

Recall Charter Members

Through a clever telephone conversation between two club women, characterized by Mrs. J. Roger Bentley and Mrs. H. C. Vandewater, special mention was made of all the charter members still retaining their club membership, and a group of them were introduced.

Those taking seats on the platform were Mesdames J. M. Banker, H. E. Bartlett, R. A. Blackburn, C. W. Burket, Helen I. Campbell, F. L. Church, J. C. Danford, W. C. Fraley, Edgar Leavitt, Alexander Mitchell, P. S. McNutt, C. J. Newcomb, C. F. Parker, Mary O. Ryan, M. L. Tight, Charles Temple, F. H. Vesper, D. W. Hunt and Adelaide Imler.

The charter members carried lighted green and yellow candles, held in green and yellow paper holders, the flickering light symbolizing the love, inspiration and loyalty that have been aglow in the hearts of Tuesday Afternoon club women through the years.

Old Time Costume

An interesting feature of the sketch was the appearance of Mrs. D. W. Hunt in a clever dress and bonnet she wore years ago at a Mother Goose party given by the club. Mr. Hunt and she appeared at the party as the old man who went to London and the wife he got, and the flowered dress and big green bonnet she wore yesterday recalled to the club members their appearance among Mother Goose characters at the party years ago.

As the charter members sat on the stage yesterday, each holding a burning candle, the club members arose and joined in singing the song "To Our Charter Members," written by Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward. They were led by Mrs. Virginia Freeman and Mrs. John W. Cotton, with Mrs. Roberta T. Young at the piano.

Preceding the "Charter Day" program Mrs. Daniel Campbell directed a short club meeting, announcing the presentation from Dr. Henry Harrower of a fine etching he bought in Germany.

It was also announced that the club luncheons every other Tuesday will be open to club members and guests up to the limit of 250. Reservations for the luncheon next Tuesday must be made by next Saturday.

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery spoke most enthusiastically of the society circus for Friday and Saturday, and stated that on Saturday 300 realtors will be luncheon guests at the clubhouse.

Introduce Lecturer

The feature of the progam yesteday afternoon was an address by Miss Winifred Rousee, Bible student and lecturer, who has just returned from a trip around the world. Miss Rousee is to give a course of lectures to the Bible section of the club and if her interesting lecture yesterday may be taken as a basis for judgment, the Bible section is destined to become one of the most popuiar units of the club organization.

Announcing to the club women that she would take them around the world in fifty minutes, Miss Rousee retraced her travels across the Pacific ocean, through the orient, through Egypt and the Holy Land, through France and England and across the Atlantic ocean and home again. It was a subject to which the average talker would have given hours, but in her own delightful, dramatic manner she hurried along from country to country, giving snatches of her interesting experiences and telling of the foreign peoples and their problems.

The club women were unaware of the passing of the afternoon and were loath to tell her farewell when the time limit of 4:30 o'clock was reached. They are now looking forward to hearing her on the first and third Tuesday mornings at 10:30 o'clock at the Bible section meetings.

A Big Car of Unequalled Excellence!
The Nash Six Sedan for Seven

Infinite care and relentless devotion to detail characterize the construction of this magnificent Nash seven-passenger Sedan.

The handsome body alone requires three months of painstaking labor by world-famous coachwork craftsmen.

Dignifying the interior is upholstery of the finest quality known to the textile world.

Heavy spiral springs in the deep cushions of the two auxiliary seats provide unusual comfort for the extra passengers. And the car's extra long wheelbase assures plenty of leg room.

Silvered fittings, reading lamps, a smoking set, vanity case of the flush type, and other fascinating features contribute an atmosphere of luxury.

Around each door of the body are Mohair strips lined with rubber tubing—a positive air-tight protection from cold winds, rain, or sifting snows.

Squeaks, rattles, and rumbling noises are unknown in the Nash Sedan for seven. It travels smoothly and quietly at any speed.

Motor, body, chassis, equipment—everything about the car sets a new and higher standard in its field. We urge an immediate visit.

OUBLE BILL FOR OXY GRID FANS

osh and Varsity Elevens to Meet Southern Branch Teams Saturday

Next Saturday afternoon foot- l fans will have the treat of ing the frosh and varsity teams m Occidental and Southern anch tangle in a double-header start at 1:30 p. m., with the greeners doing their stuff. The ne of the big game will be the nous Paterson gridiron. This l be a house-warming for the ers, as they have only had one ne at home this season, meet- Redlands at Oxy in the first fference game.

. B. U. C. Cublets downed mona's Freshmen, 12 to 2, a ek ago. Oxy's babes cleared Beaver mound last Friday by ing the Youngest Engineers vn the line, 33 to 0. The Tiger sh have won four games al- dy this season and lost one, to kersfield, 17 to 7. The branch a freshmen team made up of ellent material and the game uld develop into a main event. The defeat of Oxy's varsity by teck last Monday seemed to et the dope sheet and the ers are not counted on to ke a walkaway from the Cubs. ch Pipal's men seem to be norale since the injury to rre Priaulx, star center, which i keep that valuable player out rest of the season, and pos- ly next year, too.

Off to Poor Start

Although the Cubs are not ceded to be a winning aggre- ion they have plenty of fight l pluck to hold their own. They fought Whittier two weeks , but lost the game because y lacked a place kicker. The ength of the California line is pendous and this forward wall Coach Cline's eleven is just nding into its prime. Every r Coach Cline is forced to rt with a bunch of half-baked mbskulls and develop a foot- l team. It's hard work when st of the players transfer to University of California. Any- y, the branch is on edge for the uggle with Occidental.

Last week the Cubs bowed to mona's varsity to the mourn- tune of 27 to 6. The branch ckfield is built around Art nes, a shifty back of four rs' experience; Lorin Peak, o starred for the Cubs two rs ago, and who is back at l, while Knudson, Parisi, Han- and Jarrot alternate at the er backfield positions. The er scoring machine will have aid of Gordon Shoaf, star rter, who has been out with d injured leg. It is rather hard Oxy to fill the center job with absence of Priaulx. Coach imberwolf" Pipal built the line und that hard-fighting, never- ting Frenchman, and his serv- s will be greatly missed.

WAIVERS ON L. A. PLAYERS SOUGHT

Williams-McCarthy Warfare in Coast League Brings Complications

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—Waivers on a number of Los Angeles baseball players will be asked through Harry A. Williams, the man the "big five" elected Monday as president of the Pacific coast baseball league, it was announced today by Oscar Reichow. Other members of the "big five" will send their official communications through Williams, while the "little three" will continue to work through William H. McCarthy as their president.

With the "big five"—made up of the Portland, Seattle, Oakland, Los Angeles and Salt Lake clubs —and the "little three"—composed of San Francisco, Sacramento and Vernon—each claiming that waivers asked through the other side's president is illegal, a fine mix-up is admitted to be brewing for the coast league.

Before leaving for San Francisco today McCarthy declared again that he would take the matter before the National board of arbitration in Chicago next month.

Strong Arm Work

"The Wrigley forces working in their own backyard at Catalina used strong arm force they could not get anywhere else," McCarthy said. "It was useless to order John Sullivan, who claimed to represent Seattle, from the room."

Williams today received a telegram of congratulation from President John Heydler of the National league. It was understood that the major league club owners will favor Williams' election as it means they will have the choice pickings from the coast league players.

Williams, it also developed today, is drawing more salary than did McCarthy.

LECTURE COURSE ON SALESMANSHIP

Sun Drug Co. Manager Agrees to Deliver Series of Talks to Merchants

L. F. Millet, manager of the Glendale branch of the Sun Drug company, will be asked by the Chamber of Commerce to deliver a series of lectures on "Retail Salesmanship." Mr. Millet, who is an expert in this line, and has given a course of lectures on this subject in the principal cities of the United States, has signified his willingness to co-operate if requested.

The course of lectures will be absolutely free to everyone. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce at last night's meeting voted to offer the use of two rooms in the building occupied by the organization for the lectures.

The matter will also be taken up with the Exchange, Kiwanis and Rotary clubs, in order that all merchants of the city may request the attendance of their salespeople.

Vital to Success

"While the course is on retail salesmanship, it is not for salespeople alone," said Mr. Millet this morning. "It is a matter which is vital to the success or failure of any business. Many merchants pay a great deal of attention to the buying end of their business, but very little to the selection of their representatives who come in direct contact with the purchasing public, or the methods employed in making a sale.

"A very large per cent of the business now going to Los Angeles could be retained in Glendale, if we were wide awake enough to give the customer the same service that he receives there. There is no reason why this cannot be done.

Wants to Help City

"My only reason in offering my services is for the best interests of Glendale. I will try to give the subject consideration in a course of ten lectures, although I have given it when it covered the period of one year with a lecture every week. As far as I am concerned, the course will be absolutely free. I am making no charge for my services."

The place and date of the lectures will be announced later. It is hoped by the board of directors that every merchant will urge his employes to be present at all of the lectures, and help the idea by attending in person.

MOGULS TO OPEN TRADING SEASON

Many Swaps Rumored as Ball Club Managers Seek New Talent for 1924

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Recent developments, including the mysterious business whereby Dave Bancroft, a shortstop who was needed, was traded by McGraw for Bill Southworth, an outfielder, who was not, indicate a seance of free, furious and fancy trading at the big league meetings at Chicago, December 10.

It is the first time in several years that the major conclaves have taken on an aspect reminiscent of the good old days when ball players were exchanged with a word or two and the nod of a head.

McGraw will go to that meeting with his pockets open and a gambler's smile on his lips. He must land a couple of pitchers and a star infielder, preferably Hornsby, Maranville or Hollocher. It is said that Ring and Henline, the Phillies battery, are as good as at the Polo grounds. It is further alleged that Oeschger and Southworth, the worthies obtained from Boston, will never wear a Giant uniform, being destined for parts unknown in the big deal of which McGraw is said to be conniving.

Other Deals Pending

Incidentally the Pirates and Reds, McGraw's staunchest opposition, must step out with new faces or take the consequences. The Reds need more punch, particularly in one outfield and two infield positions, and might be coerced into something drastic like the painful parting with a pitcher or so, of which they have a great plenty. Thought here is that the Pirates need several and have Maranville as a trading asset. A deal between the Pirates and Reds have been coming to a head for almost a year. Perhaps this is it.

The Cubs may or may not stand pat, depending upon the attitude assumed by Hollocher, who left the club in mid-season, uttering strange sounds indicative of his unwillingness to return. The Cubs, left as is, would cut quite a dash next season, but the fact that Killifer was ready to tear them apart to get Hornsby indicates that he was far from satisfield with his prospects.

Needs Second Baseman

The Reds are pledged to a policy of semi-inactivity but Cobb must get a second baseman for his Tigers and Speaker faces the alternative of securing some pitchers or seeing his Indians fade into the second division. Both clubs had a tremendous offensive punch last season but lacked defensive plausibility. Cobb and Speaker are hard men to do business with, however.

The Browns also need pitchers but haven't much to offer in return, unless they care to weaken the team in other departments. Much of the club's success rests on the ability of Sisler to come back to his form of 1922 and at the same time juggle the destinies of the ball club. The White Sox, Athletics and Red Sox are ready for anything. They have all to gain and nothing to lose, they have already lost it, if anything.

Chance will find himself with plenty of speed in his Chicago outfit, but needs more hitting and pitching. It is also said that Ray Schalk, once the greatest catcher in baseball, may be relieved by Crouse, a younger and more enthusiastic hitter, from time to time. The Athletics are likely to depend much upon young players.

Glendale Blvd. Bridge Up to L. A. City Dads

The county supervisors are of the opinion that the matter of a new bridge with approaches over the Los Angeles river on Glendale boulevard is a matter to be brought before the City Council of Los Angeles, according to a letter to the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

They state further that the City Council receives two-thirds of the money collected under the vehicle act, and this matter should properly be in their jurisdiction.

The local Chamber of Commerce wants a new bridge, or asks that the present one be widened, and two approaches built at the north end to relieve the congestion of traffic. It is planned to have a direct road to Hollywood from the southern approach to the bridge. The matter will be taken up with the City Council of Los Angeles.

Shrine Club Stages Program, Smoker

Members of the Shrine club are entertaining tonight with a smoker at the Hahn Auditorium, 109-A North Brand boulevard at 8 o'clock.

P. J. Hayselden, chairman, assisted by H. D. Vandewater and Bob McKenzie, have arranged a fine program. Smokes, eats, boxing and other entertainment will be included in the program. All members of the Shrine club and visiting Shrine members are urged to be present.

A special house is built for the head of the devil of the Fijians, and also for the devil himself, it being one way of paying homage to idols by tribes on the islands.

CREAMERY THIEF STILL AT LARGE

Police Dragnet Spread Over Southland to Capture Fleeing Bandit

Although a wide search has been made by every police office in the county, including the sheriff's office in Los Angeles, up to a late hour today no trace had been found of the bandit who held up two employes and robbed the office of the Calla Lily creamery yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

The car in which the bandit drove away, a Chevrolet touring car, carrying license number 608-700, belonged to Harry A. Leigh, 838 June street, Hollywood, who is employed at the Hollywood telephone office, 1427 Gower street.

Establishes Alibi

He was question yesterday afternoon by Captain Loving and Detective Sergeant Blake. He stated that his car had been stolen some time yesterday morning before 10 o'clock from in front of the telephone office, and he was able to establish the fact that he had not left his place of business between 8 o'clock and noon, when he went to the police station at Hollywood and reported the theft of his machine.

Owing to the good description furnished the officials by the two employes of the creamery who were in the office at the time of the hold-up, it is expected that he will have a hard time getting away from this part of the country.

PLAN TUNNEL TO PIERCE VERDUGOS

Fermenting Grapes of Sans Souci Lead to Visions of Busy Hill Towns

Robert A. Brackett, who is placing on the market through the office of J. M. Boland, the new tract in La Crescenta known as Sans Souci, is responsible for the statement that Brand boulevard will soon run direct through the Verdugo Hills, according to the conversation he recently overheard, while showing their property to two contractors.

Sans Souci was formerly a vineyard and each lot is covered with the choicest variety of table grapes. Owing to the early rains this year, there were quantities of the grapes left unpicked, not being fit for market. While some of these have thoroughly dried and become raisins, there are still many which are about half dried and in a state of fermentation. Mr. Brackett affirms that his prospects while walking over the property became so engrossed in the picking and eating of grapes, that all his arguments seemed to fall up deaf ears. Suddenly they became quite animated and excited and seemed bent on buying the entire subdivision, for they were going to build schools, churches, business blocks and everything else they could think of, claiming that it would be only a short time when Glendale would be so thickly populated that people would have to come to La Crescenta to find a place to live.

In order to facilitate traffic they are going to build a tunnel through Verdugo Hills, which would lead direct to Sans Souci. Mr. Brackett says that he left his two prospects on the tract arguing as to which bank they were going to float their loans through.

Demonstrate Merits of Cleaning Fluid

Izen, the transparent fluid that preserves the polish on metals is being demonstrated all this week at the Monarch Auto Supply company, 204 South Brand bouievard, by Mrs. Eva Walters, special representative of the Alaco Pacific company, distributors for this "wonder preparation" eliminating the drudgery of polishing.

The polished metal on automobiles, silverware, musical instruments and similar articles will remain bright indefintely after being treated with Izen, according to Mrs. Walters, regardless of fog, salt air, rain, dust or heat. It requires no polishing, dirt will dust or wash off, and it is harmless to the metals themselves, can be removed or renewed, dries in ten minutes, does not discolor with age, nor does it chip, flake or peel.

"In fact, Izen is, indeed, a wonder preparation," says H. M. Butts of the Monarch Auto Supply company. "It is a standard product, on the market for a dozen years, and we recommend it fully. It is all its manufacturers claim and more. Mrs. Walters will be glad to show the women of Glendale numerous ways in which Izen will lessen their household tasks. We invite the public to drop in and see her really instructive demonstration."

32 CENTS DAY TO EAT

Captain Joseph De Garmo, in charge of feeding several hundred workers at one of the army bases in Massachusetts, has managed to feed his men at a cost of 32 cents each a day. The mess is declared ample and better than the average by the enlisted men and others. A "boarder" at the camp can be provided with food at 30 cents a meal.

GLENDALE GIRLS MOST BEAUTIFUL

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery Says Oh-Ho Show Will Prove Statement

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, chairman of the "Oh-Ho" show committee handling the big musical extravaganza for the Tuesday Afternoon club, states that they plan to advertise the "Oh-Ho" show as containing the "most beautiful dancing chorus in America" because Glendale's most attractive girls were taking part in the show, and that the Tuesday Afternoon club dared any city to produce a more beautiful bevy of young girls.

The "Oh-Ho" show will be given its premiere here December 6. Rehearsals are already under way, and the coaching is being handled by John Reber, one of the most capable producers of amateur society theatricals in the west.

Among the dancing girls in the show are Evelyn Sample, Doris Osmun, Evelyn Hunt, Winifred Parker, Margaret Longley, Lois Naudain, Florence McLaughlin, Margaret Brown, Charlotte Busby, Emma Laura Cooper, Lucille Allen, Katherine Stofft, Catherine Guthrie, Rebecca Hodge, Marie Hearnshaw, Beth Hughes, Beatrice Sutton, Valera Trimmer, Dorothy Houston, Dorothy Pickett, Ida Inglehart, Charlotte Winsel, Dorothy McGinnis, Georgia Young and Dorothy Young.

The cast of leads taking the speaking parts will be announced by the end of the week. Altogether there will be a cast of sixty taking part.

Mrs. Montgomery is getting her show committee in line for the handling of the ticket sales and other incidentals, and are going to leave no stone unturned toward making "Oh-Ho" also the biggest financial success of any event yet handled for the Tuesday Afternoon club.

SUNSHINE HOMES BENEFIT PLANNED

Performance to Raise Funds for Larger Quarters for Aged Inmates

The benefit program to be presented Thursday night, November 15, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse auditorium for the Sunshine Homes association, is to be unusually fine and something out of the ordinary, as are all programs given under the direction of Pearl Keller, one of Glendale's prominent dancing teachers.

The Sunshine Homes association is located at 118 West Palmer avenue, and is a non-sectarian Christian institution, incorporated under the laws of the state of California, and is devoted to the spiritual and material needs of worthy aged people, by providing and maintaining comfortable homes for their care, where they may spend their declining years.

The present location of the association is not adequate for caring for the many aged people making application for help and the purpose of this program is to raise funds for the building of a new home that will be sufficient for their needs. The association is maintained and operated by free will offerings and is open to aged people who are left homeless and friendless.

The perpetuity of the association is secured in a board of nine trustees who serve gratuitously. The trustees are Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Root, Mrs. W. E. Pelley, Mrs. Pearl Keller, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Brown, Miss Millie E. Karges, T. B. Cahoe and O. F. Saunders. Mrs. F. B. Root is president; Mrs. W. E. Pelley, vice-president, and O. F. Saunders is secretary-treasurer.

The following program will be presented by pupils of the Pearl Keller school of dancing under the personal direction of Mrs. Keller. Mrs. Gertrude Champlain Erb will assist as accompanist.

BOARD APPROVES NEW STRUCTURES

Contract for School Work Awarded for Cerritos Avenue Building

The acceptance of several new school buildings as completed, and the awarding of contracts for buildings to be erected and fixtures to be installed, together with the routine monthly reports, occupied the attention of the school board at the regular meeting last evening.

The buildings housing the Acacia, Broadway, Doran and Pacific avenue schools were accepted by the board. Elmer Elliott was awarded the contract for the construction of the Cerritos avenue school, his bid being $18,333, with an alternate bid of $18,538 including slate blackboards. The heating contract was given to the Potter Radiator corporation for $345.

The committee appointed some time ago to fix a rate to be charged for the rental of the various school auditoriums presented a report which was adopted by the board. The minimum and maximum fee to be charged will be given to interested parties applying at the office of the superintendent.

Urge Eyesight Survey

In accordance with the plan being followed in other sections of the country, four local optometrists, members of the California League for the Conservation of Vision, asked permission to be allowed to make a survey of the school children's eyesight with a view to determining the actual condition in this line existing in Glendale at this time. There will be no charge made for this service. The matter was laid over for action at the next meeting.

The board, having received applications from various members of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Pacific avenue school, asking that one building be set aside for cafeteria purposes, designated the bungalow east of the kindergarten building on the school lot as the one best adapted to this use. Gas and water will be installed in the near future.

Hereafter all school principals will be required to submit a report to Superintendent White regarding the condition of the playground apparatus at the various institutions, in order to insure the board that there will not be a repetition in Glendale of several accidents which have occurred in eastern cities recently, due to unsafe equipment.

A bicycle rack, to cost $71, will be installed at the Grand View school by order of the board.

An application was received from the Colorado and Acacia schools asking the board to furnish dark shades for one room in each school in order that moving pictures might be shown. The domestic science class of the Wilson avenue school volunteered to make the curtains for the showing of pictures in these schools if the board would purchase the material.

As the result of a decision made by the board some time ago, the following standing committees were appointed last night:

Building, David J. Hibben, E. H. Learned, Mrs. A. C. Brown; finance, E. H. Learned, H. W. Chase, David J. Hibben; policy, H. W. Chase, Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. A. C. Brown; teachers, D. J. Hibben, Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. A. C. Brown.

The monthly financial report was presented and accepted. After discussing various matters pertaining to the construction of new buildings, the board adjourned to meet the last Tuesday in November.

SNOW QUEEN TO WED

Mrs. John McKenzie, known widely in Western America and Canada as "The Snow Queen," and who is the idol of the Cree Indians, recently announced she would marry again—and her age is 90 years. She has had three husbands, two of which were frozen to death and the third died of starvation. She won the sobriquet of "The Snow Queen" in her efforts to save her husband, conquering the snow fields in search of food for her mate, after the sledge dogs had died from starvation and cold on the thirty-mile quest.

OCTOBER RECORD MONTH FOR NASH

Prospects for November Sales, Indicate Big Volume, Says Agent

Nash Motors had the biggest October in its history, and indications point to an unsuually large business in November. October sales showed a 10 per cent increase over the same month last year. Actual figures were 4245 passenger cars shipped last month as against 3828 cars in October, 1922.

"This has been the biggest year in Nash history," said Donald H. Barbee, general sales manager of the Nash Sales Company, Inc., 112 South Maryland avenue. "Almost 52,000 Nash cars were shipped between January 1 and October 31 and while the spring and summer seasons are now behind indications from every section of the country point to an unusually heavy demand for cars throughout November.

"The strong position in the industry occupied by Nash Motors is due largely to the fact that the company always has endeavored to build honestly and to sell its product at the lowest possible margin of profit. This policy has resulted in outstanding value which the public has been quick to recognize. Because of this, rapid progress on a sound basis has been possible.

"New buildings, now in progress of construction at the Nash Six cylinder car plant and additional equipment at the four cylinder car plant, will make possible increased production to meet the demand for Nash cars in the next year."

LOSES TONSILS

Robert F. Kolts of 914 East Elk street, had his tonsils removed this morning at the Glendale Research Hospital.

Eight days to tan leather are required with a new vacuum process announced by a Swedish inventor, and a 60 per cent reduction in the number of men employed will result from the use of this system.

President Hanson's Program Is Outlined

among the crew and no mutiny aboard, our little cruise should be a pleasant one. Together we hoist anchor, set our sails and launch out. With the various winds we may adjust our sails, and change our course. But our port will ever be a Greater Glendale.

"We stress that the board does not belong to the officers, nor the governing committee. It is emphatically community property. Every member shares alike, and alike should have a voice in its policy. Speak your mind in its deliberations, and you will not complain afterwards, but rather respect the will of the majority.

Business and Finance

"Sound business suggests that our increasing finances require a carefully prepared budget, approved system of accounts, audit of the books, and a monthly financial report. For this purpose, recommendations should be made by the board for the guidance of the governing committee.

"Ambiguity of meaning, admitting of double interpretation, as shown when recent amendments came up, and also at the last election, has brought out the necessity of a revision committee for going over the constitution and by-laws.

"While the Glendale Realty Board is an incorporated body, and the governing committee, therefore, has its powers defined under the law, the character of our organization and the work we are doing, prompts a policy of publicity, unless expediency forbids. The governing committee is a shop for fair play, but not a pawn shop for personal gratification.

"The work of the past year could not have been done without an office and a competent secretary in charge. But our meager office equipment is wholly inadequate and hardly in keeping with the standing of our board. When the directors meet they are compelled to stand or sit on borrowed tables, while our secretary lacks desks. For our use, as well as for the impression gained by strangers, this need should be supplied.

Weekly Meetings

"While our weekly meetings are an established institution, we are still scouting for a satisfactory place. To sustain interest, these meetings must be made indispensible to our profession. Without forsaking good-fellowship, we must take up subjects of vital interest to our business. With only one business meeting a month, we could use alternate meetings for a real estate course under an educational committee.

"'Jinks Day' and 'Realtors' Million Dollar Entertainment' are high spots of diversion. Other chuckles might come from a banquet or a 'trek' to the hills. More power to the social committee.

"The multiple listing system was tried out, but ended disastrously, for lack of loyalty and co-operation. Fair play is essential to its success. The system is right, if we treat it right. Even with a few using it, over $1700 was turned into the treasury, with sales aggregating $857,825. In a few years, it will be in general use. Shall we be in the van, or lag behind?

"Putting Glendale on the map is our business. Selling Glendale to the world is our livelihood. None of us want to starve. We are here. The rest of the world wants here. Shall we ask them in?

"We must broadcast ourselves. No one else will. The world absorbs peppy publicity. The press wants it. We've got the stuff to shout. The aerial route for a touchdown for Glendale!

Unsightly Signs

"Judicious use of signs may have its place, but its abuse does a city no good. A dozen signs on a lot is an unsightly misuse, not an advertisement. Berkeley abolished signs with a bonfire. Why not celebrate in Glendale?

"We love our city. We stand for her betterment. We foster civic pride, and promote her welfare. Parks and playgrounds are of vital interest to the realtor. This board should sponsor a movement to meet this need.

"Our board compliments the City Council on the sewer contract with Los Angeles. We have got to have sewers. The bond issue must be put across. Co-operating with the Council and other agencies, we should offer our united strength to make it 100 per cent.

100 Per Cent Board

"We glory in the fact that we were the first large board in the state to become 100 per cent board. We need the state and national associations to get needed legislation for our profession. They need our support. In furtherance of this, is urged a full attendance at the regional conference, and the 1924 convention at Pasadena, and co-operating with every agency for our mutual benefit.

"While avowing our loyalty to the state association, we protest against the present method of electing state directors—a self-perpetuating body. The state wants our money. We want them to have it. But we demand the right to name our own directors who will represent our board. Believing this board is quite capable of choosing its own directors, action is suggested to abolish this system.

"With a clear sky and a favorable breeze, we now cut loose from our moorings, and, with the cherished hope of a splendid cruise, these suggestions are respectfully submitted for your consideration."

Urges U. S. to Prevent Return of Ex-Kaiser

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The United States government should exert all the power at its command to prevent the return of the former Kaiser to Germany, even as a private citizen, Senator King, Democrat, of Utah, declared today. He took issue with President Coolidge and Secretary of State Hughes on this point. It has been announced that this government will not protest the Kaiser's return.

P. E. Will Install Wig-Wag on Central

M. B. Towman, Glendale representative of the Automobile Club of Southern California, has been notified by E. E. East, the club's highway engineer, that the officials of the Pacific Electric have agreed to install a wig-wag at the Central avenue crossing of the Burbank line, in order to warn of the approach of trains.

'Art and Artists' to Form Lecture Topic

John W. Cotton of Glendale, celebrated artist, will speak at the public library at 8 o'clock Friday night, November 16, under the auspices of the Glendale Art association, on "American Art and Artists."

This is the second of a series of addresses by Mr. Cotton on kindred subjects. The meeting is open to the public.

TUJUNGA

CLUBWOMEN WILL FEAST HUSBANDS

Annual Banquet for Inferior Halves Will Be Staged Friday, Nov. 16

Husbands of the Tujunga Woman's club are about to get their annual dinner. No matter how many meals are postponed on account of club meetings, once a year all husbands of members are corraled and souped and pied whether they need it or not. Next Friday night, November 16, the club will banquet the husbands if it ruins the whole day's business.

The schoolhouse domestic science room has been selected for the occasion. There is plenty of soap there for the dishes and the hostesses are anxious to have the husbands feel at home all evening. Chicken will be used to amuse the guests after soup, while waiting for the speeches to begin. Fried, not costumed.

Eating spectacles will be donned and the banquet will begin promptly at 6:30. It will last until somebody pulls the table away.

Eat Themselves Even

Club doings are no biscuits in husband's oven. They don't usually have much representation anyway, so when they succeed in becoming their own representatives at a banquet that only functions once a year the inferior halves can be relied on to eat themselves even on the year at the first table.

The ladies will sit at the second table. With accumulated appetites bearing down on the guests, the second table will most likely be the first one,—empty.

Mr. and Mrs. McGroarty are invited guests of honor. Mr. McGroarty should be able to get some excellent local color for an article on something.

All members who have no husbands have the privilege of taking a non-member's to feed.

Let 'em try it! Such things are what cause mail to be temporarily addressed to the hospital.

CHEST CAMPAIGN TO OPEN NOV. 19

Drive for Welfare Funds to Be Launched at Huge Mass Meeting

Glendale's drive for a Community Chest will be inaugurated next Monday evening, November 19, with a monster mass meeting at the city hall, when several prominent citizens will speak. It is planned to have a band in attendance and start the drive off with an impetus that will carry it to a successful conclusion.

W. E. Hewitt, in outlining the plans of the committee to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night, was very enthusiastic over the idea. He stated that he had received reports from various cities, notably Pasadena, which stated that the Community Chest idea was one of the very best that had ever been inaugurated. Instead of the merchants, fraternal societies and commercial organizations being the principal support of projects coming under the Community Chest plan, this drive would give every citizen a chance to participate in a matter which vitally affects the welfare of his city. Instead of five hundred contributors, there should be five thousand, or more. Mr. Hewitt stated, and this would afford an opportunity for each resident of Glendale to do his part.

Set Goal at $40,000

The goal has been set at $40,000. Preparatory to the launching of the campaign, speakers will appear at the local theatres this week-end to acquaint the people with the object of the drive, and to enlighten them regarding the Community Chest idea.

The city is being divided into sectors, with the appointment of team captains and selection of teams already practically completed. The same plan which had made the drive a success in other cities will be followed out in Glendale. Detailed information will be available later in the week, when the personnel of the various teams will be made public.

Rush Shipment from Dayton By Airplane

DAYTON, Ohio, Nov. 14.—For the first time in history, a passenger and cargo of freight are winging their way to the Pacific coast from Dayton today. Howard Rhinehart, prominent civilian flyer, is at the stick.

The Egry Register company received a "hurry order" for goods from a Los Angeles customer. Shipments from Dayton to Los Angeles are usually two weeks on the road. Rhinehart expected to make delivery in thirty hours.

DENVER, Nov. 14. — Davis White, 24, University student, is in jail today charged with violating the prohibiton laws. Police declare they found a huge still in White's home, which the youth is said to have admitted owning. He told arresting officers, they said, that he had earned nearly enough money from the sale of illicit liquor to pay his way through college and was preparing to "quit the business" when arrested.

Kaiser's Return to Germany Victors or Victims, Which? Watching Others Work Have We Become 'Blazzy'?

By Gil A. Cowan

Perhaps nothing of recent issue has stirred quite so much comment as the proposed return of the former kaiser to Germany. Poor old broken-down Hohenzollern, who ought to be dead in a prison graveyard, wants to do as his son, noted as the clown prince, did.

On general principles, Wilhelm should never be allowed to get out of exile. Indeed, he should be "set down upon." And then sent to St. Helena or some other resort.

It seems too bad that the war will have been fought in vain if the house of Hohnezollern is to have its wilful way.

"Victors in War, Victims in Peace," is the subject of a recent editorial in the Los Angeles Examiner, a part of which we take the liberty of reprinting:

"Victors in war, vanquished in peace. That is the record that men at home and abroad have been trying to write across the history of this country since the armistice.

"For the third time now statesmen in Europe and America are endeavoring to force upon this victorious people the penalties usually reserved for the vanquished.

"If, true to the present French program, this country goes into the economic conference on reparations, the terms to be laid before her are that she shall forfeit the $11,000,000,000 owed her by her former allies, that she shall virtually pay $11,000,000,000 to lighten the load of Germany's war indemnity. Exactly what does this mean?

"It means that the United States shall take its place beside conquered Germany and, with conquered Germany, shall proceed to indemnify the conquering nations for the cost of the war.

"It means that the United States shall contribute to the cause of the victors eleven times the amount that beaten France paid to Germany in 1871, and far more than Germany herself has paid the allies as the penalty of her defeat in 1918.

"It means that it was not enough for the United States to ask nothing and get nothing at the end of the war, not enough for the United States to leave the allies in full possession of the spoils which but for the United States they never would have secured, but that, in the final settlement, the United States must pay, even as Germany must pay, a colossal tribute to the conquering powers."

Yet with all of this we think what useless, fragile things words are. It is no longer possible to awaken the public to a consciousness, unless it be by some revival method. Why, during the recent brush fire here, it was almost impossible to get the larger body of the populace to respond. They wanted to stand around and see the few act.

Perhaps it is because we no longer teach people to do things for themselves. Perhaps it is because the majority of us are so darn dumb we don't know what to do. At any rate, we Americans have about reached the point where we permit other peoples to walk on our faces—and say "Thank you."

Read the current fiction, and it is principally about people who no longer have a thrill left in them. Consider the coming generation and you see the same "blazzy" attitude. From the divorce courts one would judge that love lingers but briefly. Employment turnover in industrial pursuits has nearly wrecked the majority of large successful enterprises. And the people no longer "stay put."

We know the east blames California. We know California blames the east for its troubles. For instance, in a certain industrial pursuit Chicago pays $68 a week to keep men from going to California for $48. But they come, and then wonder why they are not getting $68. Great stuff!

Lad Fractures Both Bones in Right Arm

Karl Breckenridge, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Dobbins of 203 East Chestnut street, has a painful reminder of the Armistice day holiday Monday, for while playing in his grandparents' yard he tripped and in trying to save himself a fall by throwing his hand down to the ground he had both of the bones in his lower right arm broken.

The injury has proven very painful since, and it was necessary today for the attending physician to reset the broken bones and put the boy's arm in a cast.

Karl's cheerfully bearing his pain, but states it's pretty tough because within the past year he broke his wrist and a finger on his left hand, and now he's laid up again.

The others are the works of copyists, pupils and other artists under the influence of the great master, says Van Dyke, professor of the history of art and archeology at Rutgers college, New Brunswick, N. J.

INNER SECRETS OF CAR REVEALED

Man Who Tinkers With Auto Learns All About Its Personality

"The man who really gets the most pleasure out of his automobile is the chap who, after tinkering with it, making his own repairs and installing his own accessories, can really say that the old boat has a distinct personality. He is the fellow you see every day who brags about the mileage he gets to the gallon; the absence of vibration; the pickup and pep his boat has, and other various and sundry things that a man can talk about if he really knows his car.

"It is much easier to know the innermost secrets of an automobile's internal workings than it was in the past. Complete encyclopedias on autos and their ailments are on sale at nearly every good accessory store and at many book stores. The ones in the libraries seem to have been perused with care by dozens of prospective back-yard mechanics, and occasionally you'll see some chap parked along the side of the road looking over the old 'Dyke' to find out why his motor decided not to mote.

Too Many Tools

"Of course, it would be out of the question for a motorist to try and carry all the different tools that are now on the market and recommended as cures for certain motoring problems. There are special socket wrenches, combination wrenches, trouble lamps, ratchet wrenches for use on the transmission, tire tools and piston ring compressors. Then you can take your pick of valve-grinding outfits, jacks of both gear and ratchet types, pliers of a dozen or more types and kinds, wheel pullers and many other tools too numerous to mention.

"The motorist could not, even if he wished, find room for all the tools he could use," said Claude H. Roudebush, local manager of the Western Auto Supply Company. "Many of the tools now made for the man who repairs his own car, and his number is legion nowadays, were made primarily for garage use. There are many different assortments of tools now put on the market in the form of tool kits that give about as fine an assortment of tools for roadside repairs as any motorist could want. One of the most popular sets contains thirty tools as well as repair materials such as cotter pins, copper wire, etc. The next time you hear a man bragging about his car," concluded Mr. Roudebush, "just ask him who does his repair work. Two to one he'll say that he's tired of paying out money to garages and mechanics and is doing it himself."

Bar Free Bus Rides for Postal Employes

A. A. Smith, passenger traffic manager of the Pacific Electric company, in a communication read to the board of directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce at their regular meeting last evening, informed that body that free transportation could not be granted employes of the local postoffice on the new bus lines.

The directors had requested that mail carriers on duty delivering mail be allowed to ride on the busses without charge, as city employes were allowed to do. Mr. Smith stated that if the request be granted the burden would be too heavy on the company, and eventually would work a hardship on the people who have to pay fares, as the free transportation in the final analysis was paid for by the patrons of the bus service.

The letter was referred to Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson for his information.

Ask Appropriation for Flood Control System

The emergency appropriation of $1500, which Supervisor Wright informed L. T. Rowley of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce flood control committee, was available at the request of the city authorities, will be asked for at once so that work may be started on the check dams in Sycamore canyon before the heavy rains set in.

Supervisor Wright was taken for a trip in an airplane over the burned area last week, and following his trip and a conference with the flood control engineer of Los Angeles, realized the urgent need of immediate action. This sum will start the work as outlined and a further appropriation will be asked as the work gets under way.

Occidental Debaters to Compete at U. S. C.

The Southern California extemporaneous public speaking contest is to be held at the University of Southern California, Thursday, November 22, at 8 p. m., in the auditorium.

Occidental is working hard to win this forensic contest, the first of the year. Francis Henshaw, former Pasadena High school student who graduated with the class of 1921, has been chosen to represent the Tiger institution. Henshaw is known all over Southern California as an exceptionally good speaker and debater, being a member of the Pasadena High school debating team three years and taking an active part in oratorical contests during that time, winning several. He has been out of school two years working and is now attending Oxy.

The extemporaneous contest was first instituted last year under the newly-organized Southern California Intercollegiate Public Speaking Conference, which includes S. B. U. C., U. S. C., Calteck, Redlands, Whittier, Pomona and Occidental. A general topic is assigned for study, and is subdivided into ten divisions an hour before the contest. Each contestant draws by lot one of these subtopics and is permitted one hour to organize his speech. Robert Stevenson represented Oxy last season and won second place, U. S. C. taking first.

The general subject this year is the "Agrarian Problems in the United States."

An inquiry of the officer's mental condition may result from the investigation, it was reported.

NINE DAYS LEFT IN FIRST PERIOD

Standing Of Contestants In Salesmanship Club to Be Published

By J. A. MALCOLM
Salesmanship Club Manager

Club members in The Glendale Evening News Salesmanship campaign will have an opportunity to show gains more often in the future, as the standing of the club members will be published two or three times a week, starting tomorrow. If you want to make a good showing in the campaign now is the time for you to get busy and secure the subscriptions that will place your name at the top of the list. Bear in mind that there are only nine more working days in the first period and after that time less credits will be given for the subscriptions, so that workers during the first period will be the ones who will stand the better chances of winning the grand capital prizes.

Work Hard and Win

The sure road to success is doing a little bit better than the next best. This is true all through life. No matter what your endeavor may be, life is a competition, and those who plan best and work hardest are the ones who succeed. If you merely work as hard as you think your competitor is working, if your ambition is merely to keep up with the others you'll not get very far and you will never take any blue ribbons, win any high honors or be awarded any of the world's big prizes. But, if you work harder and longer and more efficiently than any rival, you'll win.

Art Association Exhibit Shows Alluring Examples Of Local Painters' Work

The twenty-five small canvasses of the Glendale Art Association hung during November at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse and which, at the end fo the month, will go to the highest bidder in a unique system of balloting, offer some fascinating examples of the high order of art being produced by the Glendale colony.

"Desert Stream", by John W. Cotton, is particularly beautiful in composition and coloring; "A Summer Day," by E. Franquinet, is refreshingly cool and exhibits a quiet, possessive technique; "Shades of Evening," by J. M. McNeely, is rather quiet but true to theme; "The Old Roadway in Griffith Park," by R. Derby, is restful in tone and strong in handling; "High Fog in Tujunga," by Nell Walker Warner, is tender yet strong; "Mount of Inspiration," by Mrs. Roy A. Ballagh, president of the Glendale Art association, reveals an inspiring glimpse of Mount Hood.

Striking Pictures

"The Gossip," by Walter L. Cheever, an interesting interior of two figures, adds just the right contrasting note to this exhibit of landscapes; "The Old Trail," by F. Watrin, carries a note of atmospheric reality in colony life; "Camp Baldy," by Rudolph Streit, offers a strong piece of coloring, the subject of which is a well-known mountain resort; "Beauties of Autumn," by Mrs. Johanna C. Armstrong, is a strong water-color of eastern woods; "Mists of Tujunga," by Laura Lee Sweet, is a realistic portrayal of an awe-inspiring phenomenon; "The Sheik's Favorite," by Rubi Causey, is a most interesting figure of decidedly luminous light effects; "Woodlands," by Mrs. S. J. Lane, is a strong eastern woods scene; and "Autumn in Verdugo," by Mrs. Harriet Barry, proves to be a soft, beautiful subject, full of tenderest feeling.

"Glendale should be justly proud of these creative artists in its midst," says Mrs. Ballagh, "and should not only do every-

AUBURN (Placer Co.), Nov. 14.—Jin Sling, an aged Chinese, today was fined $100 by Justice of the Peace Johns for violation of the Wright act. He paid the fine, but before sentence was pronounced retorted with a witticism that set the court in an uproar.

"You sling gin?" continued the bench.

"No. Wine," responded the Chinaman.

Sentence then was pronounced.

IMPROVEMENT OF LOS FELIZ URGED

Stretch From Griffith Park to S. P. Tracks in Need of Quick Repairs

The board of directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce inaugurated a movement at their meeting held last evening, whereby the City Council of Los Angeles will be asked to improve the condition of Los Feliz road from Griffith park to the Southern Pacific railroad tracks as soon as possible.

The Glendale City Council and the Chamber of Commerce of Hollywood will be asked to co-operate in placing the matter before the Los Angeles body in the hope that immediate results will be obtained.

"The condition of Los Feliz road in this section is familiar to every resident of Glendale who owns or drives a car," said P. J. Hayselden, who brought the matter to the attention of the board. "The need for repair has often been discussed, but we have got nowhere. I suggest that the organized representatives of the towns affected join forces and demand some relief in this direction at once."

Owing to the extreme heavy traffic on Los Feliz road, especially on holidays and Sundays, the condition of the thoroughfare is a menace to public welfare, according to Mr. Hayselden.

It is hoped that by uniting the Chambers of Commerce of Hollywood and Glendale and the City Council of this city that the request will bear more weight than has previously been attached to communications of this character addressed to the Council of Los Angeles.

Jewish Sisterhood Will Stage Benefit

Announcement is made by the Jewish Sisterhood of Glendale of a benefit musicale to be given Wednesday night, November 28, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Kinney at 123 West Elk avenue.

Mr. Gillewicz sings in six languages and the Glendale Sisterhood is delighted to present him to Glendalians. Tickets for the affair will be available at the door or from members of the Sisterhood.

KIAS' CANNIBAL WEAPONS SHOWN

Isle of Vanishing Men Gives Up Axes and Arrows That Chill Heart

An exhibit of unusual interest is being displayed in the window of W. E. Sullivan, real estate dealer at 112 South Brand boulevard. It consists of primitive weapons, war drums and arrows used by the Kia Kias, a cannibal race inhabitating the southern coast of New Guinea. This portion of the world has withstood the advance of civilization, and very few white men have penetrated the country.

The articles on exhibition were loaned to Mr. Sullivan by his brother, Robert, who is interested in the picture, "The Isle of Vanishing Men," now showing at Clune's Broadway theatre, Los Angeles. This picture was taken by William F. Alder, Los Angeles author, motion picture man, and explorer. He was accompanied on his trip by John W. Boyle, motion picture cameraman. In addition to filming the cannibals in their native haunts, they brought back many relics, which have an added interest owing to the fact that the Kia Kias as a race are fast disappearing due to disease.

Devilish Instruments

Among the articles is a headhunters' axe. The club alone is heavy enough to kill a man if struck with it, but the natives search until they find a sharp rock which they imbed in the head of the club. There are several arrows which are constructed in such a way that once entering the body of a man or animal, cannot be withdrawn. A long stick of bamboo in which the cannibals prepare their food is also shown, as is the drum, similar to the tom-

Glendale Holds Place of Honor at Gathering of California's Club Women

The name of Glendale, "The fastest growing city in America" was given prominence today at the big conclave of California club women at the Trinity Auditorium this morning and a luncheon later at the Biltmore hotel, honoring Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Glendale's honor lay in the fact that Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Glendale resident, member of the Tuesday Afternoon club, and president of the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's clubs, presided at the morning meeting and the after luncheon hour. Besides, there were over sixty-five Glendale women included in the delegation from the Tuesday Afternoon club attending the morning session and over fifteen present for the luncheon of 700 club women at the Biltmore.

Mrs. Jones Honored

An added honor for Glendale was that Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, past president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, president of the Glendale Music club, occupied a place on the platform at the Trinity auditorium by virtue of being a past president of the Los Angeles District Federation. There were 100 of the prominent and distinguished members of the General Federation, the local Biennial Board, the State Federation and the Los Angeles District Federation, together with all past presidents of the district seated about Mrs. Winter on the platform.

The doors of the big auditorium were opened at 9:45 o'clock and the Tuesday Afternoon club women of Glendale were among the first to enter. Admission was by ticket and after the opening of the meeting at 10:30 o'clock by Mrs. Toll the doors were thrown open at 10:45 o'clock, when club women without tickets were given any vacant seats.

Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, past president of the General Federation, gave the invocation, and this was followed by the singing of "America, The Beautiful," the song to be featured at the club conventions in the spring.

Brief addresses were given by Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, California director of the General Federation and by Mrs. John S. Urquhart, president of the State Federation.

Welcome for Mrs. Winter

Mrs. Winter, who is a well chosen leader of American club women, received a grand greeting of applause when she was presented as the honored guest, and spoke for one hour on federation themes.

From the auditorium 700 of the club women motored to the Biltmore hotel for luncheon. After the luncheon Mrs. Toll presided, calling for two-minute speeches from a representative of each of the seven departments of the federation. There were also short addresses by resident state chairmen or representatives.

Mrs. Joseph Francis Sartori, president of the local biennial board, was one of the speakers, and among the others were heads of various women's organizations throughout the Southland.

CIVIC PLANNING BODY ADVOCATED

C. of C. Committee Will Urge City Council to Name Commission

Realizing the necessity for some organized method of procedure in laying out of streets in Glendale, a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, consisting of Jesse E. Smith, R. F. Kitterman and L. H. Wilson will present before the City Council a request that they appoint a city planning commission.

"Owing to the rapidly increasing traffic on all our roads," said W. T. Hewitt, who presided at last night's meeting in the absence of the president, Jesse E. Smith, "a crisis in the matter is being approached." Mr. Hewitt paid a tribute to the real estate men, who, he said, were making California. He pointed out that each subdivider carried out his own plans, and, in order to look into the future needs of this city, it was absolutely essential that this haphazard method be discontinued, and that plans of this nature be co-ordinated under one head.

He mentioned the need of parallel roads to adjoining cities, as well as more through streets in the city of Glendale itself. The matter was brought up some time ago, he stated, but no action had as yet been taken.

TODAY—New Rich Buy Autos First, Or Pay Off the Mortgage; Then Visit Haberdashers.

By CARL L. TURNER
For International News Service

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 14.—Motor car dealers always get the first check.

A canvass of the largest financial institutions of this city, handling the bulk of the transactions for the Mid-Continent oil industry, revealed this to be the unanimous opinion of bankers who negotiate with those having newly found wealth in Southern Kansas and Oklahoma.

"In nine cases out of ten," one banker said, "the first check to be drawn on the new bank account, after the pipe-line company makes the first payment, goes to pay for an expensive automobile."

Only one exception to the rule was found. That was where the newly wealthy was bearing a mortgage on the home. There the first check went to pay off the mortgage, the second caring for the car.

The haberdasher comes in for his share of the success of the oil well, too, it was learned. Usually his is the second check. Travelers' checks are then obtained, and the newly wealthy, in the expensive automobile, clothed in "up-to-the minute" styles, start out to see the world.

In the old fields of Kansas and Oklahoma stand approximately 200 derricks—altars of hope upon which are heaped countless prayers for riches—idle today, but ready to begin work "when times are better."

Knowing not whether "better times," meaning resumption of drilling, will make them millionaires or mendicants, the multitude whose lives are to be regulated by the outcome of their "wildcat" wells always assume the result will be success and make preparations for the future accordingly, it was said.

A very large percentage of those who become wealthy by reason of oil are the men who owned the land before oil was found. Others are promoters of schemes to block the acreage and drill the test. Few, if any, records show, have ever made a single dollar through the purchase of stocks in "wildcat" companies, but millions continue to place confidence in such concerns daily.

Such promotions now are barred in many states by strict "blue sky" boards, which investigate oil stocks, royalties and other schemes using oil as a cloak to separate the credulous from their money. These laws were passed only after millions were filched from the unsuspecting.

Before the inauguratiton of these laws it was possible for the unscrupulous to promote all sorts of questionable enterprises in the oil game. Lurid advertisements depicting gushers belching forth countless barrels of the black fluid measured only in dollars never failed to gain the attention, if not the confidence, of persons who had "a little stored away for a rainy day."

If the well "came in," as it seldom did, stockholders were advised to hold their stocks, the price of which was advanced, while additional thousands were netted by the men behind the scheme. Fake oil stock promoters have their field so well covered persons are becoming skeptical of all oil enterprises.

On the other hand, the legitimate promoter has pursued fortune or failure evenly, drilling the twenty-five feet daily and always praying for the well to "come in." Sometimes they have gone broke; in many instances adversities clouded their future, but others made fortunes. They are the ones whose checks were deposited with the automobile dealer.

While such action may be classed by many as unwise, bankers who mildly criticised the judgment of the newly rich for early expenditures on motor cars admitted that these fortunate persons rarely invest money in securities foolishly or carelessly.

"We have a great many customers who have made the wisest investments with money so suddenly brought them by the Goddess of Fortune," a financier declared.

OFFERS TAMMANY GREAT SUM

Croker's Widow Would Give Financial Aid

Mrs. Bula Edmondson Croker, who offers her fortune and services to Tammany.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—"Chief", Croker, once dominating figure of Tammany Hall, has been dead many months. His financial and personal support has been sadly missed by the Democratic organization.

But now comes the gladsome news—to Tammany leaders and workers—that the Croker fortune and at least a part of the personal influence he boasted, will be thrown into Tammany's future fights—including the coming national elections.

Mrs. Bula Edmondson Croker, wdow of the dead leader and nationally known because of her own interesting career, has notified the Democratic organzation that she will carry out the wish of her late husband and do everything she can for Tammany "except run for office."

For the first time since Croker died in Ireland in April, 1922, the widow made known that Croker's last requests included one that she "go back to Tammany and help the boys."

"He placed that desire above his wish that I return and fight the efforts of his boys to blacken my name," she told Tammany leaders. "So here I am."

"Among the men Mr. Croker admired was Al Smith, now governor. And if he is nominated for president, count on me to stump the country from one end to the other in his behalf," she said quietly.

Few outside the main leaders of the organization knew of Mrs. Croker's offer until after it was made. But the news of it has put new life into the Tiger, who suffered a severe blow with the death of "the big chief."

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— By Howard R. Garis —

UNCLE WIGGILY AND SUSIE'S PENNY

Once upon a time Susie Littletail, the rabbit girl, was given a penny by her mother. Susie did not have to go to the store for her mother and buy half a yeast cake or even part of a box of matches with the penny.

"The penny is your very own, Susie, my dear," said the rabbit lady. "You may buy what you wish with it."

"Oh, then I'll buy a lollypop!" laughed Susie. But as she went skippity-pop to the candy store she thought to herself: "No, I will buy me a penny's worth of licorice drops."

Thinking how good the licorice drops would taste made Susie feel very happy, and she was almost at the candy store when she happened to think of something else.

"I will buy me a penny's worth of gum, thought the little rabbit girl. Well, Susie was very happy, thinking now long the gum would last, when, all of a sudden, she happened to think of something else.

"With my penny that my mother gave me," she said to her self, "I will buy me some cinnamon drops. They are such a lovely, red color."

Well, Susie was wondering how many red cinnamon drops she would get for a penny, and she was hoping she might see her brother Sammie to give him some when, all of a sudden, as Susie was skipping along the boardwalk, something dreadful happened.

SHE DROPPED HER PENNY DOWN A CRACK!

Yes, as truly as I am telling you, Susie's penny slipped from her paws, rolled a little way and then jumped down a crack in the boardwalk to hide.

"Oh!" sobbed Susie! "Oh, dear! Oh, my poor penny!"

Susie knew the penny would be lonesome all by itself down under the dark boardwalk. And also the little rabbit girl wanted the penny to spend. So she began to cry.

Then along came Uncle Wiggily, and he saw tears streaming down the face of the little rabbit girl.

"Why, Susie, what is the matter?" asked the kind bunny gentleman, twinkling his pink nose.

"Oh, sobbed Susie, "I had a penny, Uncle Wiggily, and I was going to spend it for a lollypop."

"Why, I don't see anything there to cry about!" laughed the bunny uncle.

"Oh," went on Susie, "but I thought maybe I'd better buy licorice drops, instead of a lollypop."

"Well, that's all right— a few licorice drops won't hurt you, Susie," chuckled Mr. Longears."

"No, but you don't understand," and Susie cried harder than ever. "I didn't get the lollypop or the licorice drops. I thought I'd buy some gum."

"Wel', of course, gum may be all right," spoke the bunny. "I don't chew it myself, but some very good friends of mine do. Far be it from me to say that gum chewing is wrong, but——"

"Only I didn't get the gum," went on Susie. "I thought maybe red cinnamon drops would be better and so——"

"Oh, I congratulate you, Susie!" cried the bunny gentleman. "Red cinnamon drops are the very best kind of candy you can buy for a penny."

"Bu—bu—but I did—I didn't get them!" stammered and sobbed poor Susie.

"Why not?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Because—now — because I dropped my penny and it rolled down a crack in the boardwalk and it's there yet!" exclaimed Susie. "I mean my penny is still down the crack in the boardwalk."

"Oh, well, don't cry about that!" soothed the bunny uncle. "You just show me where you dropped it and I'll get that penny back for you."

So Susie pointed out the crack in the boardwalk where her penny had rolled down, and the bunny gentleman, getting on his knees, put his paw through the crack and began to fish for the money. He could just see it gleaming under the boards.

"I'll soon have it up," he said. But while he was trying to get it along came the Woozie Wolf.

"Ah, now is a fine chance for me to nibble his ears," snickered the Wolf. And he was just going to do this when Uncle Wiggily looked up and said:

"Before you nibble me, will you put your paw down the crack in the boardwalk and fish up Susie's penny?"

"I'll do that," said the Wolf.

She dropped the penny down a crack!

So he thrust his paw down hard in the crack to bring out the penny, but the crack was such a queer one that when the Wolf put his paw in he couldn't pull his paw out again. Uncle Wiggily had pulled out his paw, but the Wolf couldn't.

"Hey! What's this! I'm caught! I'm stuck!" howled the bad chap, pulling and pulling, but not getting his paw loose.

"Of course you're caught!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I hoped you would be. Now you can't nibble my ears! Come on, Susie," said the bunny uncle, "Let the penny go. "I'll give you another!"

And away ran Susie and Uncle Wiggily to the candy store, and not only did the bunny gentleman give Susie one penny, but he gave her four, so she bought the lollypop, the licorice drops, the gum and the cinnamon candies. But she didn't eat them all at once, I am glad to say. As for the Wolf, he was stuck in the crack of the boardwalk until his wife came that night and sawed him loose.

Do you think the hands of the clock will wash its face? If they do, I shall next tell you about Uncle Wiggily and the feathers.

THEATRES

THE GLENDALE

A man who is scared to death and pretends he isn't has always been made into sure-fire comedy on the stage and still more so on the screen. Such is the basis of "Going Up," Douglas MacLean's first star photoplay, which is to be seen at the Glendale theatre the last times today. Mr. MacLean and his excellent supporting cast develop this famous musical comedy into a riot of laughter. To see this film hero looping and zigzagging in a contest with a real French ace and finally chasing him out of the sky is one of the most novel and shrieking situations yet devised by a screen comedian.

Heretofore, everyone in the movies has taken aviation and aviators seriously. "Going Up" presents the humorous side of flying wih a few blood-curdling thrills thrown in for good measure. There is nothing serious about the story except the desperate plight of the young author played by Mr. MacLean, who has to fly an airplane and can't.

It is a great show, with other film attractions rounding out the bill.

VALUE OF A HUSBAND

A returning traveler tells us
That over in Russia today
Women will pay a million rubles
For a husband. They think
That if they are married
They will be safe from persecution.
Any sort of a man can get a bride
And the dot of a million rubles,
All of which is very good.
But the nut of the argument is
Not so complimentary to the men.
The true worth of a husband
Who brings a million rubles
Is less than thirty cents.

LITTLE STORIES FROM REAL LIFE

Silas Thompson came from old New England stock. He could but didn't boast of an ancestor who while trading with the Indians originated the return-when-empty system until recently in vogue. Like the majority of folks in that section, Silas's parents considered their tribe as the most important vertebra in the backbone of the country.

When our young hopeful became able and willing to leave home, it was decided that busy New York was a fertile field for him to start his public career. In spite of his bringing up, Silas was bright, and he hadn't any more than paid his first and last two months' rent before he realized that his label was wholly out of order on this particular isle.

He changed his name to Tony Petruccio, and all went well until a rival detected him eating pumpkin pie on Saturday afternoon. The investigation which quickly followed this act of treason disclosed the fact that Silas was not a genuine Manhattan American. The enraged public jehued him out of town.

Back on his native soil, however, he was able to realize his ambition to serve his country. He landed a job keeping the fence around Plymouth Rock in repair and thereby prevented the controllers of the country's destiny from chipping the relic to pieces in their patriotic frenzy and selling them as precious stones.—W. J. F.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

SPIRITUALITY VS MATERIALITY

Menu Planning, No. 3

Yesterday I gave you some Precautions and reviewed the Best Foundation for Each Child. It is as follows:

BEST FOOD FOUNDATION FOR EACH DAY FOR EACH CHILD.

Part I. Protective Foods: 1½ pints milk (at least); 1 full cup of vegetables (especially the green leaf vegetables), part of them raw; 1 cup of fruit, part fresh if possible.

Part II. Energy Foods: Cereals, including whole grain breads; fats, in the form of butter and cream; and egg yolks.

In planning the menus for the younger children, have milk, cereals (including bread) and fruits for the morning and evening meals, and a protein food and vegetables for the basis of their heavier noon meal.

If you cannot give all of the minimum requirements of vegetables at noon, some may be given in the evening meal or the morning meal, but it will simplify your menu planning if you think of fruits for the evening and morning, meal, and vegetables for the noon meal.

Many vegetables and fruits have similar properties so they can be used interchangeably to a certain extent. So when you cannot get fruits, give more vegetables, and vice versa.

At the dinner when potatoes or rice, macaroni, spaghetti or noodles are served in liberal quantities, bread need not be served—except a small amount of crust or dry toast or hard cracker for exercise for the teeth and jaw muscles, and to use to push the food on the fork or spoon. (Too much bread eating is sometimes the cause of not enough of the Protective Foods being taken.)

A SAMPLE MENU

Breakfast — Orange; Milk, 10 ounces; Cereal, with part of above milk in it; very little sugar, if any; Whole wheat toast, crisp throughout, and butter; Egg, coddled or poached.

Dinner — Baked or stewed chicken, or nut and cottage cheese roast; baked potato with butter or chicken gravy; steamed spinach, ½ cup or more; raw carrots, grated or chopped very fine; served with a little boiled dressing, ¼ cup or more; Apple Indian Pudding made with milk; Educator cracker; water, milk or fruit ades to drink.

Afternoon Lunch—1 apple or pear, or other fruit in season.

Supper — Whole wheat bread and butter; cooked vegetables if liberal amount was not taken at noon; apple sauce, ½ cup; milk, 10 ounces.

Note—If you haven't the carrots for the noon meal, save a little raw spinach and serve that as a salad. If more convenient, and you have a cold place to keep it, you can cook enough cereal for two days. Serve the second day with a few dates or soaked prunes or seedless raisins in it for a change. Be careful to see that only the child who chews well has these additions.

Tomorrow:—Answers to Correspondents.

My Dear Followers: When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose 4 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember, it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the columns as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

A little girl has written to ask me how to make pop-corn balls, so I am publishing this recipe with two others.

Pop-Corn Balls: Put one tablespoon of pop-corn into your popper, fasten down the wire lid, and hold the popper over intense heat till popped. Then put another tablespoon of the corn in the popper and repeat the process. When you haye popped four quarts of the flaky white kernels, put them in a large bowl and proceed to make the following:

Sirup to Mix With the Popcorn: Put into a saucepan one cup of molasses, one cup of granulated sugar and one teaspoon of vinegar; mix well, then place the saucepan on the range. In five minutes this mixture should begin to boil. Let it continue to boil from ten to 13 minutes, until a little of it becomes brittle when dropped into a cup of cold water. Then remove the pan from the fire, add one-half teaspoon of baking soda and one teaspoon of vanilla, stir well, and pour this over the popped corn in the bowl.

Mix tgether with a spoon till all the white kernels are a light brown color, then butter your hands and begin making the balls. This recipe makes 17 pop-corn balls the size of a baseball. Lay them on a buttered plate to dry, before eating.

Pulled Taffy: Use a granite-ware kettle. Put into it three tablespoons of butter and, when melted, add two cups of Porto Rico molasses and three-fourths of a cup of granulated sugar; stir till the sugar is dissolved, then boil till brittle when a little is tested in a cup of cold water. Now remove pot from fire, add one tablespoon of vinegar, and turn the candy into a well-buttered pan to cool for a few minutes. When not too hot to handle, take it out of the pan and begin pulling it till it is porous and light-colored. Cut it into small pieces with a sharp knife or a pair of large shears, and lay these on a buttered plate to cool.

Molases Candy: To make this, simply follow the recipe given above entitled, "Sirup for Popcorn Balls." Only, instead of mixing the sirup with the popped corn, pour it into a buttered pan and let cool; when almost hard, mark it into squares with a buttered knife. Or, if you wish to make peanut brittle of it, cover the bottom of the buttered pan with broken, shelled peanuts before pouring in the sirup. Cocoanut Molasses Candy can be made by covering the pan-bottom with shredded cocoanut before pouring in the hot sirup.

Tomorrow:—Some New Fancy-work Ideas.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. EX-WIFE'S PROPHESY COMES TRUE

Mate Marries Housekeeper, As She Predicted

Mrs. Rose Barker Cromwell Cohn, and Mrs. Genevieve K. Mulford, who is said to be Mrs. Cromwell now

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Much has been said and written of women's intuition, their extraordinary powers of perception, etc. Chalk up another victory for said intuition.

For the feeling that the former Mrs. Rose Parker Cromwell had that her husband hoped to some day marry his housekeeper, apparently was well founded. The 68-year-old wealthy realty operator has just been wed to said housekeeper, Mrs. Genevieve K. Mulford, according to word at Cromwell's home.

Cromwell obtained his divorce from the first Mrs. Cromwell last June. He charged that Mrs. Cromwell, 38, had been too friendly with Harry Cohn, a California movie director. The then Mrs. Cromwell replied that she had been "framed" and, it is said, Cohn came east from California to help her fight the suit.

After the divorce, the ex-Mrs. Cromwell went to the Pacific coast and became Mrs. Cohn last September. Before she left she told friends that Cromwell would soon follow her to the altar.

Her prophesy, founded on her intuition when the aged operator and she became estranged, has come true.

The new Mrs. Cromwell is said to be very pretty and the match is called a real love one by friends of both.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My girl chum and I have had an argument. She and I are just seventeen years old. She meets fellows and never tells her mother and corresponds with different boys, but won't show a letter to her mother. I confide in my mother and tell her that she ought to, but she says I am crazy. She said her mother asked her once about showing a letter and she declares if she ever asks again she will find some way to get them without going to her home. I told her I would write you to settle it. LOIS.

Of course you are right. Your girl friend seems to be showing off in order to give you the impression that she is very independent. Her smartness is not in the least pleasing and she will gain nothing by treating her mother as she does. One of these days she may wish she and her mother had exchanged more confidences.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been very much in love with a young man of twenty-three. I myself am nineteen. We met at a dance and it seemed to be a case of love at first sight. He had another girl with him, and I had gone to the dance with another boy. We had three dances together and after the third he asked if he might come to see me. Of course I was very glad to have him. The dance was on Saturday night and he came to see me the next night.

After that we saw a great deal of each other. He would have come over every night if my parents had let him, but they are very strict and only let me have dates three times a week. He asked me to save all three nights for him and because I loved him so much I did.

After we had known each other a month he began to talk of love and of getting married. He didn't have enough money to marry at once, but he said he would work hard and asked me to wait for him. I loved him so much that I gave him my promise.

Now I find that what I thought was love was only infatuation. I have hoped that he would feel the same way about it and would grow tired of me, but he doesn't seem to. He apparently loves me just as much as ever. He seems to care so much that I can't bear to hurt his feelings by breaking our engagement. On the other hand, every time he comes to see me it gets harder for me to stand his kisses and keep on pretending that I care as I once did.

I am a girl who likes to play fairly. I am also a girl who prides herself on keeping her word. In this case I don't know what to do, because if I keep my word I can't play fairly. I no longer love him. What shall I do? MARGARET H.

It seems to me it would be far better to play fairly than to keep your word in this case. Of course the young man will be deeply hurt when he learns the truth, but I am confident he will get over his disappointment in time. It will be far better to break your engagement now than to marry him without love.

Do not waste any time in correcting the mistake you have made. The task of being truthful seems great, but once you have taken the step you will be thankful that you have delayed no longer. It is not fair to yourself or to the man to be kissed and loved when you are not sincere.

BEAUTY CHATS

by EDNA KENT FORBES

THE WELL TAILORED GIRL

The American girl is famous all over the world for her trim, well-tailored figure. If an artist were to paint a picture of a typical American girl he would undoubtedly put her in a dark blue tailored suit with a smart little tailored hat, trim shoes and slim silk-stockinged ankles.

It is a fortunate thing for the girl who must be careful of her income that the tailored costume is always smart. One can go anywhere in a good suit, except to a formal dance, and be properly dressed. The girl who has almost nothing to spend on clothes should buy one good suit, plain of line, dark in color, with one moderately dressy blouse of the same shade, and a few simple wash blouses. With this equipment she is ready for either business or social activities. If the style is good it will last at least two seasons.

Tailored suits were made for slim figures. But the stout girl, if she is careful in her choice, can look almost equally well. The coat should be long and loose and beltless, and there should be no cross lines of any kind. The slim girl is the one who can wear the short box coat with the broad band of fur around the hips, the coat pulled into her waist with a narrow belt. This is the smart outline this season.

It never pays to make a tailored suit at home; not even the cleverest amateur dressmaker can turn out a good one. Good suits, properly tailored and cut on correct lines, are made in such quantities by the wholesale manfacturers that it is cheaper and better to purchase them in retail shops.

If money must be saved, the straight, simple, casual dresses that we are still wearing can be made up at home, but the tailored suit never should be.

Worried: It is not necessary that you should lose the wave in your hair if you treat it for this unnatural dryness. Trim the split ends about every three weeks. Massage the scalp every day to improve the circulation, as that will mean a healthier condition and enough oil from the skin to keep the hair from breaking. A tonic included with the massage several times a week will also be helpful.

M. B.: At 22, five feet three inches in height, your weight should be not more than 125 pounds. If you reduce to that amount your bust will not be too large.

Tomorrow—Beauty and Good Manners.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

With the Women of Today

By MRS. LILIAN CAMPBELL

QUEEN MARY'S DOLL HOUSE

Designers, artists and craftsmen are speeding up the creation of a doll's house to be presented to Queen Mary of Great Britain. The house will first be exhibited at an exhibition at Wembley Park, the admission charges to be devoted to any charitable cause selected by England's queen. Designed by Sir Edward Luytens, the house is on a scale of onc ineh to the foot. It is about eight feet high and stands in a formal garden.

It is of modern renaissance type. There are Lilliputian fireplaces, doors and window frames. A staircase which leads out of the domed hall is of jade, lapis lazuli and marble. Water runs into the tiny baths in the bathrooms designed for the King Doll and the Queen Doll.

Electric lights are operated by tiny switches. There are telephones, a grand piano seven inches long and full-length portraits of King and Queen, of King Edward and Queen Alexandra hang on the walls.

In the kitchens are model cupboards and dressers, which hold reproductions of the famous Queen Anne silverware at Buckingham Palace. The tiny coffee pots, fashioned by a woman goldsmith, are of such dimensions that a thimble may be placed over them. Crowns for the heads of the royal dolls, all a-glitter with pinpoint jewels, will be part of the palace treasure. Outside the doll's house stand the garage and the dynamo which supplies the power. Motor cars are in the garage, waiting the royal pleasure.

Sewer Cost Data to Be Ready This Week

Definite information regarding the engineer's estimate of the cost of Glendale's new sewer system will be forthcoming by the end of this week, according to W. E. Hewitt's report to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night.

Several joint meetings with the engineers of Burns & McDonnell, who are making the survey, have been held, and they are at work collecting the necessary data, which will be ready for presentation to the city in a short time.

The estimates will cover the main trunk line sewer connecting with the Los Angeles system, and the conveying sewers to be placed in Glendale. There will also be information relative to the laterals which will be arteries feeding the conveying sewers.

St. Edward's Crown, made for the coronation of Charles II, apparently is the model by which all later ones have been fashioned.

EAGLE ROCK

CONTRACTOR HAS FAITH IN FUTURE

Property Anywhere In Eagle Rock Profitable, Says Hollywood Builder

James Ferdon, who heads the Hollywood invasion of Eagle Rock, in an interview on building activities in this district, spoke wtth enthusiasm stating:

"You can drop down a marker from an aeroplane almost anywhere in Eagle Rock and, following it, invest profitably at the point it lands. The community is beautifully situated, well kept and progressive, and I have great faith in its future, particularly when I note such structures rising as the Security Trust and Savings bank building at the northeast corner of Colorado and Central, the Brayton building on North Central just above, and the Gill building to be started soon, in addition to numerous apartments, bungalow courts and fine homes in other locations. Mr. Ferdon is building the structure which will house the state bank.

Eastern Star Bazaar

The Sewing Circle of O. E. S. No. 313 will hold an all-day bazaar on Saturday, November 17, at the Women's Twentieth Century club house, on East Colorado boulevard, with Mrs. Hal Baly as general chairman.

Cooked food, fancy articles, aprons and home-made candy will be among the articles offered. At 6:30 o'clock there will be a dinner served and dancing will follow.

Mrs. L. V. Ryther is charman of the fancy goods department and Mrs. Erse Tate of the apron department. This is the second annual affair of the kind, the one last year proving very successful, according to Mrs. Baly.

On the night of November 16 there will be a benefit at the Eagle Rock Lodge, when a good time is promised by those in charge.

Mrs. C. A. Kirksey of 2120 East Hill drive was hostess to the World's Service Society of the Congregational church at 2:30 o'clock last Thursday afternoon, November 8, when Miss Frances Clapp, formerly a teacher of music and English in the Doshesha school, Tokio, Japan, addressed the meeting, proving to be a delightful speaker and telling many interesting thngs about her work there and conditions in that country. She is at the present time visiting her mother at 5239 Central avenue.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Coit of Cleveland, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parkinson of 163 North Highlands avenue, are prominent in that city, where Mr. Coit was president of the Coit-Alber Chautauqua company and Mrs. Coit has long been a leader in club and social circles. The Coits drove through from Cleveland, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Coit, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom T. Cannon, Mrs. Cannon being Mrs. Coit's sister. Mr. Coit has disposed of his eastern business and plans to remain permanently in Southern California.

Mrs. Mary H. Crowl of 211 West Ellenwood drive, who with her daughter, Miss Corinna Crowl has been spending the summer in England, are now visiting in Paris, from which point they will go to Swtzerland and Italy.

No city can go far materially that has no adequate spiritual background. $10 Initial Bids

In view of the fact that November is "Better Picture Month" all over the United States, the present exhibit by the Glendale Art association, now hung at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, is offered to the local public practically at their own prices, Mrs. Ballagh explains, the only stipulation being an initial bid of $10. Each person wishing to view the exhibit is welcome, as the clubhouse is open to the public from 9 until 4 o'clock every day but Sundays.

The method of balloting is simple, states Mrs. Ballagh. The name, the price offered and the number of the picture are put on a piece of paper, and dropped into a ballot box arranged for the purpose. The ballots are counted weekly and at the end of the month those winning the pictures will be announced.

Clown Piggie 'Porkie' With Golden's Animal Circus

Here Are Some of the Clowns Coming to Glendale Thursday With Golden Brothers' Trained Wild Animal Circus

One little clown piggie in the "Golden Bros.' Big Four Ring Trained Wild Animal Circus" goes at his bottle just like a human youngster—and being a piggie he goes after it as often as Johnnie Young, his clown nurse, will let him.

In the performance of the "Golden Bros. Big Four-Ring Trained Wild Animal Circus," which is announced to give two exhibitions in Glendale on Thursday, the piggie (his name is Porkie") is one of the several funny little piggies that follow the clowns in one of their burlesque parades around the track. The little pigs are always hungry. That is why it is easy to keep them tagging the funmakers in their antics, for sooner or later the wee piggie cut-ups know that they will be fed. "Porkie' and his associate piggies are about the only animals in the big wild animal circus that do not appear in the parade that takes place at 10:30 a. m., the morning of the circus, and prior to the two performances. But they make up for it by fairly convulsing the kiddies in the big show at each performance.

"Golden Bros.' Big Four-Ring Trained Wild Animal Circus" has been called the most astounding exhibition ever conceived, as lots of thrilling animal acts are promised for the grown-ups, with its herds of performing elephants, trained to do anything but talk, and a horde of women and men animal trainers that take their life in their hands twice daily working in the big cages with fierce wild beasts.

tain success, but most of them fail. Why? Because there are difficulties in the way. Because it takes work; effort, mentally and physically, and persistence. It's only the worker who goes right on, straight ahead, detouring obstacles and overriding difficulties, who will ever succeed. It is not always the easiest thing in the world to get subscriptions. It's hard to keep going when sometimes things seem to be against you; when orders won't come as rapidly or as easily as you think they should.

Prizes Repay Efforts

However, remember that the others have the same experience, the same arguments to meet, the same trying difficulties. The prize you can win at the end of this campaign will many, many times repay you for your fight. It's the fellow who keeps on going that wins, and if you can and will stick in the fight right up to the last minute you are bound to win one of the best prizes that are being offered. Don't forget that the first period ends one week from Saturday and you want to get every available subscription to the campaign department before Saturday, November 24, in order to get the most credits for the subscriptions, for after that date the subscriptions will lose about one-third of their voting power. If you have any subscriptions promised, get them this week if possible.

Don't rely upon your promises until the last minute, for if you do you may be sadly disappointed. Make up your mind right now that you are going to make a big showing this period.

HOLD TWO YOUTHS AS CAR BANDITS

Police Recover Three Autos Boys Admit Stealing; More Are Sought

In picking up Raymond Grout and Kenan Holmes of Los Angeles in this city Monday night, November 12, Officers George Booth and W. S. Richardson of the Burbank motor police have again secred heavily, apprehending two juvenile delinquents who, in a confession to Chief John H. Long of the depaprtment are said to have admitted theft of six automobiles in the past fourteen days.

Recovery of three of these cars is reported by Chief Long and the balance will doubtless be rounded up this week. The boys have been bound over to Glendale for trial in the court of Judge Harry W. Chase.

They were picked up in a stolen car which was recognized by the arresting officers as belonging to a resident of Burbank. Upon examination, it was found that they had in their possession a suitcase and overcoat stolen from a Glendale automobile Saturday night.

De Mille Plans City

Announcement that a new center is to be built by Cecil B. De Mille just beyond Burbank is of decided interest to residents of this city. The great film producer and magnate has selected the intersection of San Fernando and Lankershim boulevards for his development project and at present is offering $100 in gold to the boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 16 years who can give the best name of not over two words to the prospective city.

The letters must be sent to the Hollywood corporation, 6818 Hollywood boulevard, before midnight Saturday, November 17, and must be written on one side of the paper only. They should give only the suggested name, together with full name and address of contestant and the father's full name.

The winners will be announced, according to present plans, at the formal opening of the tract, Sunday, November 25, at 3 o'clock.

Injunction Dissolved

The city officials of Burbank who were recently enjoined against "improving" Eleventh street may now continue their operations in that quarter, having succeeded through affidavits and arguments in convincing the superior court that they plowed up the recent strip as a part of said improvements.

J. Fife, owner of the gravel pit in that locality, who brought the injunction, claiming the city had "deliberately" and "maliciously" plowed up the road to prevent him from operating his trucks, is therefore no longer permitted the exercise of his temporary injunction granted two weeks ago.

A. W. Coote Indicted On 3 More Counts

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—A. W. Coote, wealthy Los Angeles stock broker, previously indicted on several counts on charges of embezzlement, was again indicted on three counts on the same charge by the county grand jury late Tuesday. The sums involved approximate $30,000, and Coote was held in $15,000 bail on each count.

On the first count Coote is charged with appropriating stocks from the City National bank of Long Beach. He is also charged with the embezzlement of $8,000 from Ben F. Pasch on a promissory note. The third count involves another Pasch note for $5,000.
